What do people usually think about god?

Dunno, I don't know anyone who's religious.

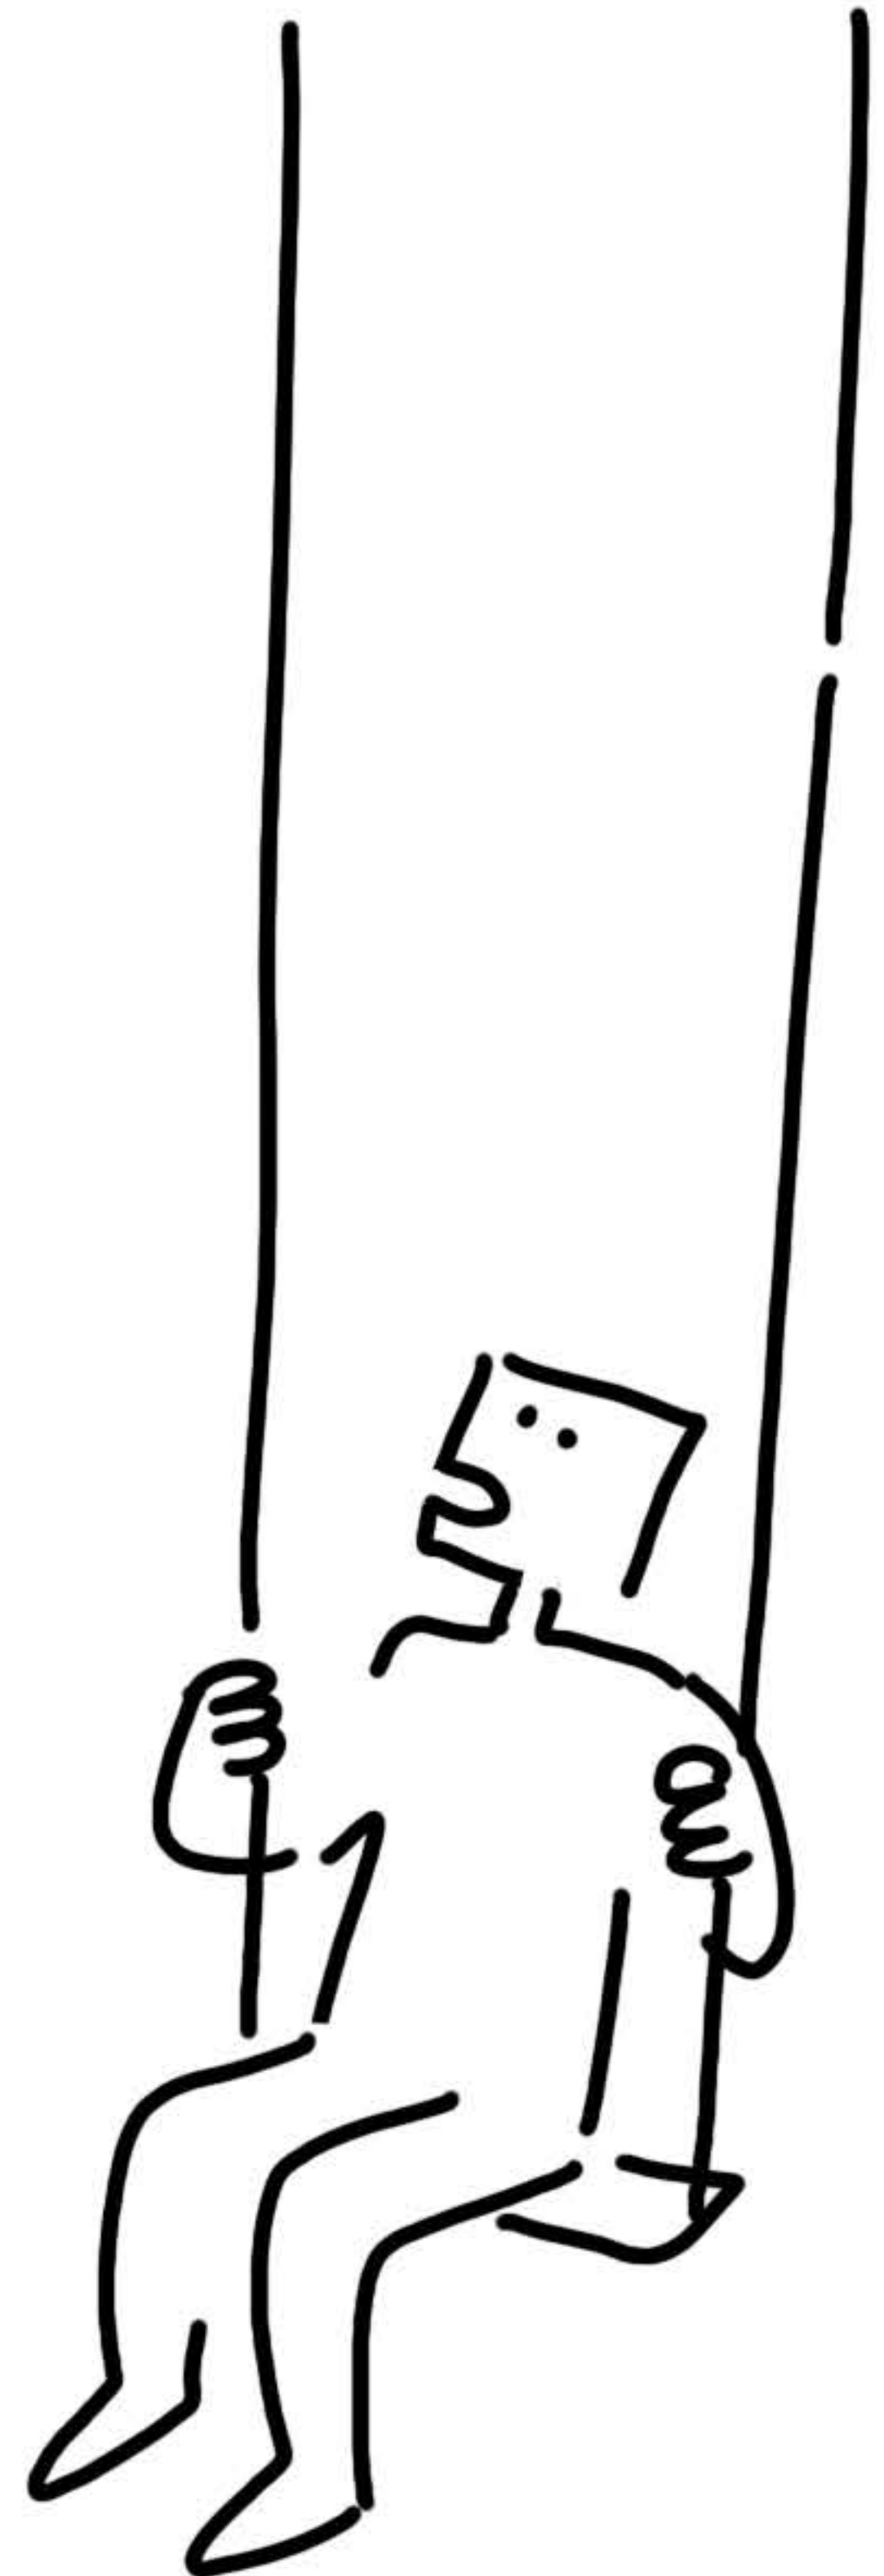

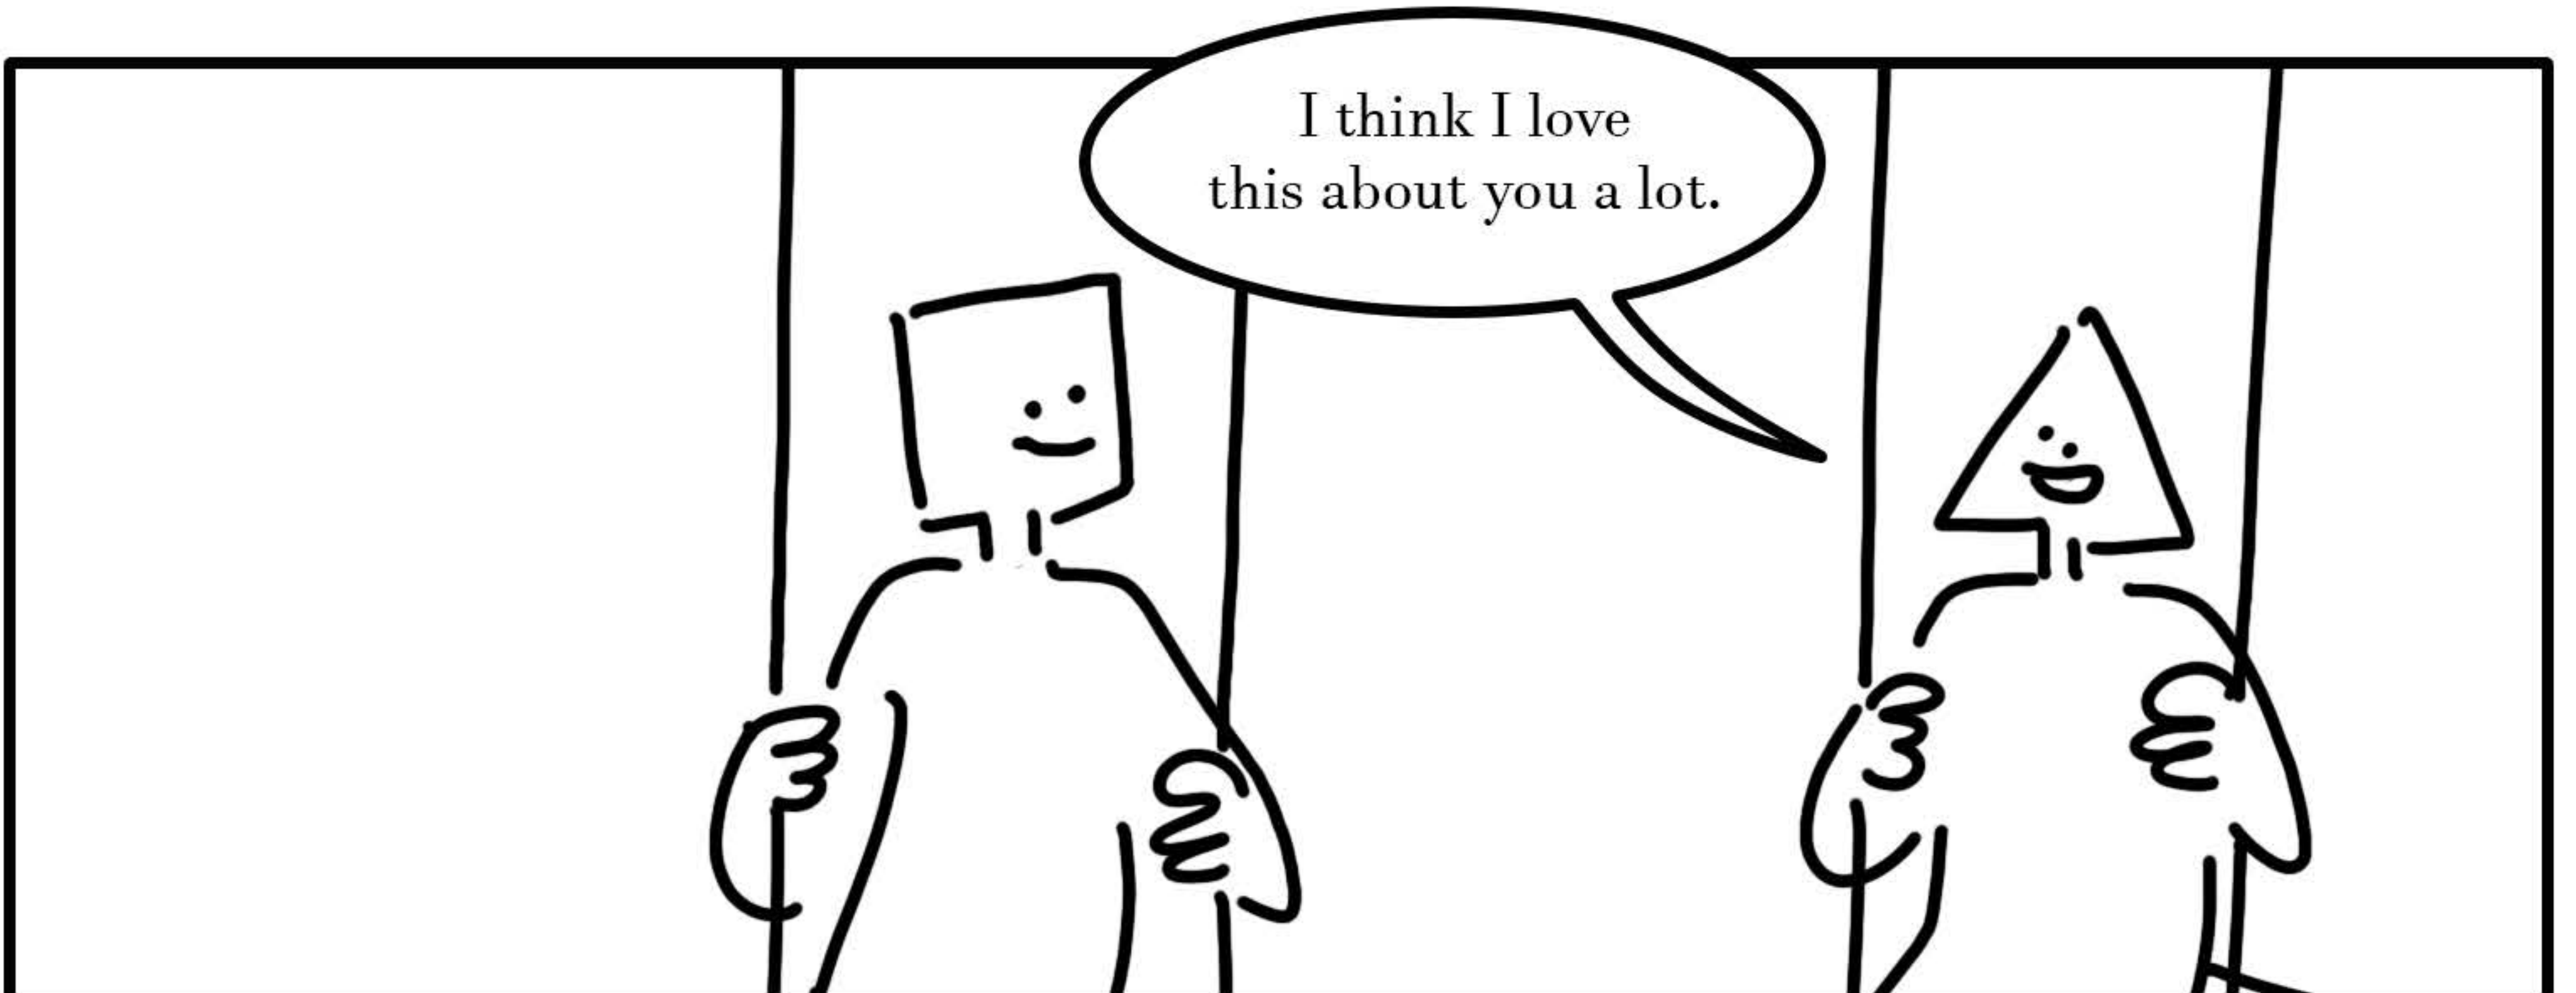

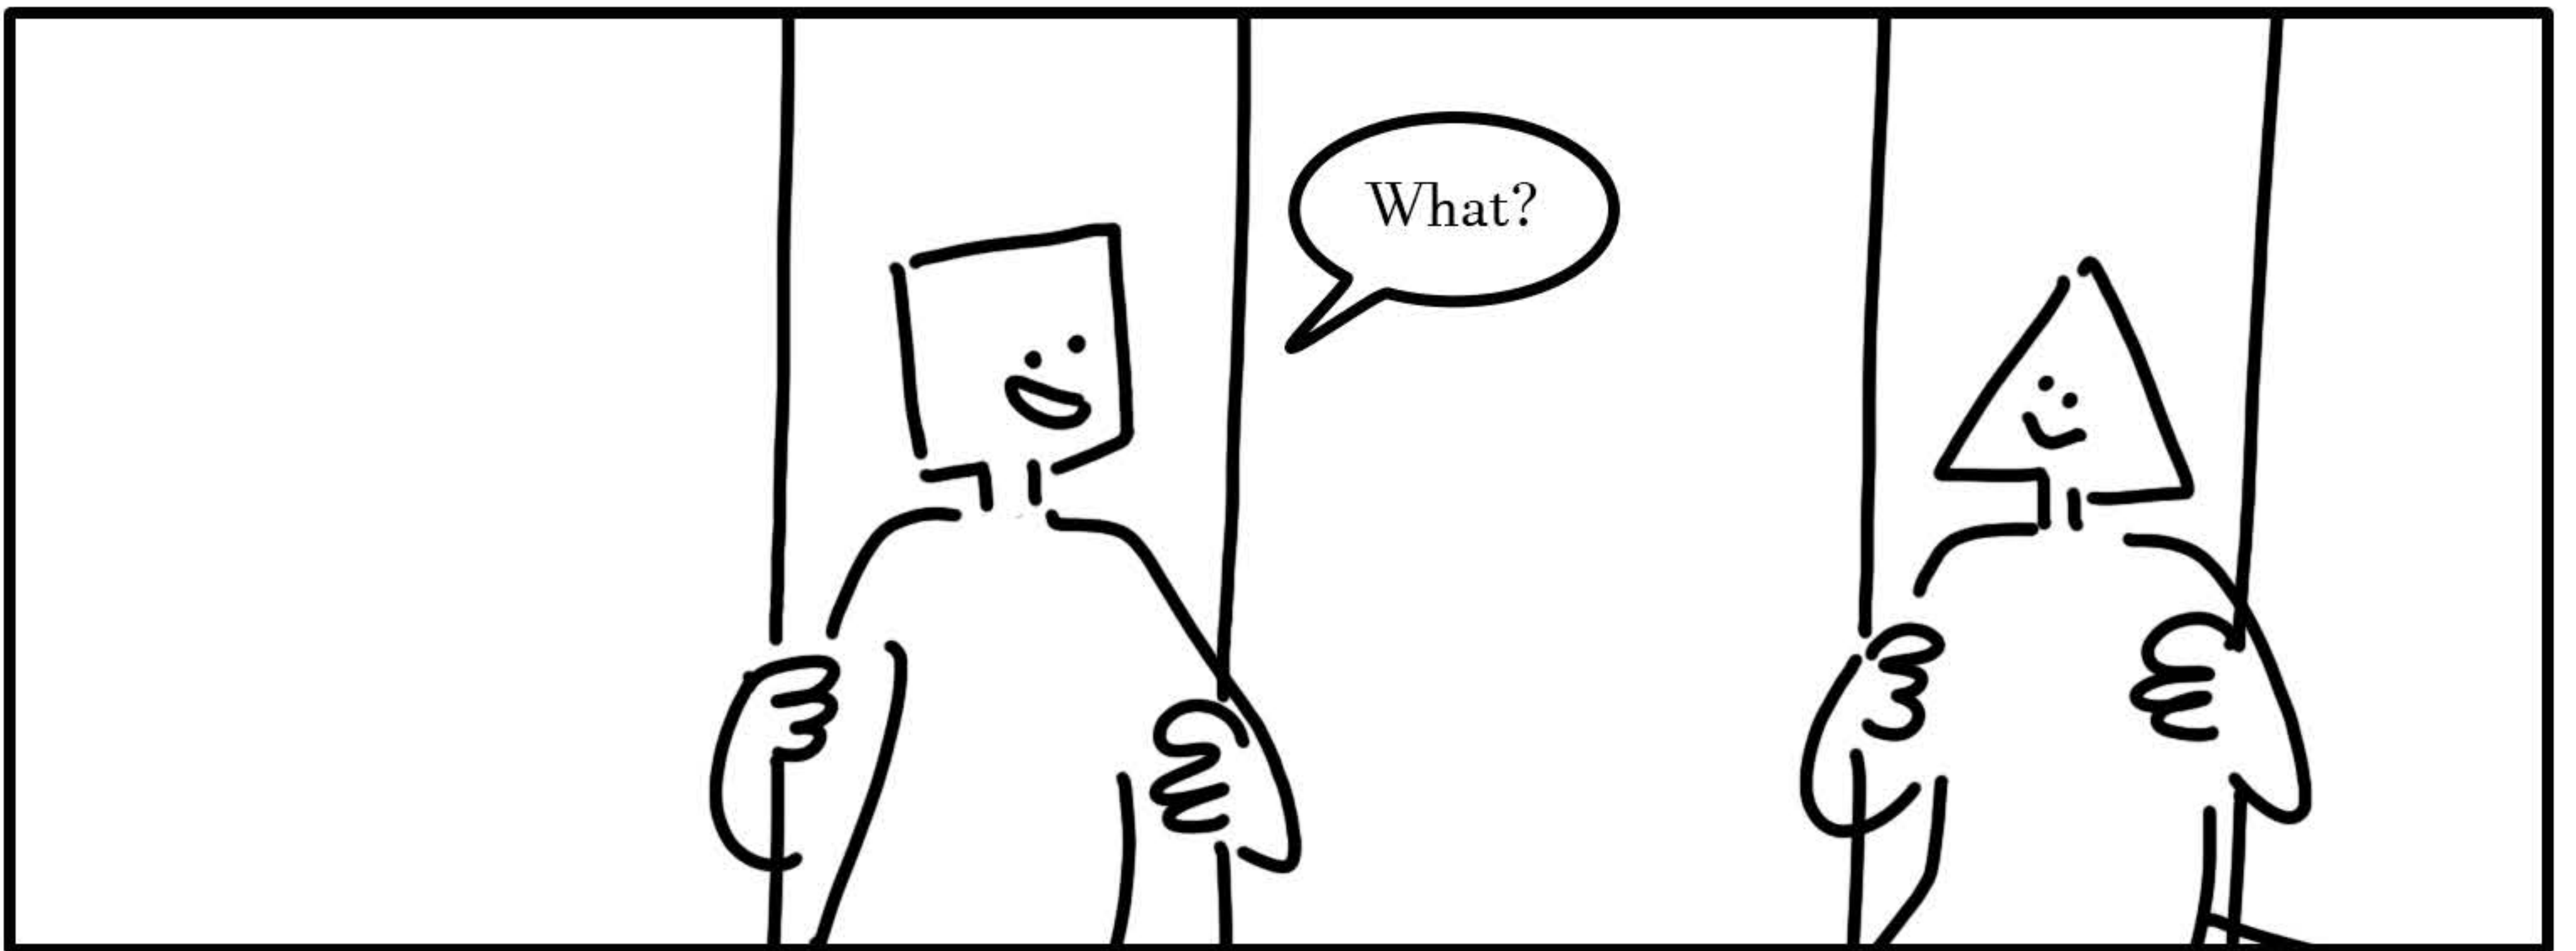

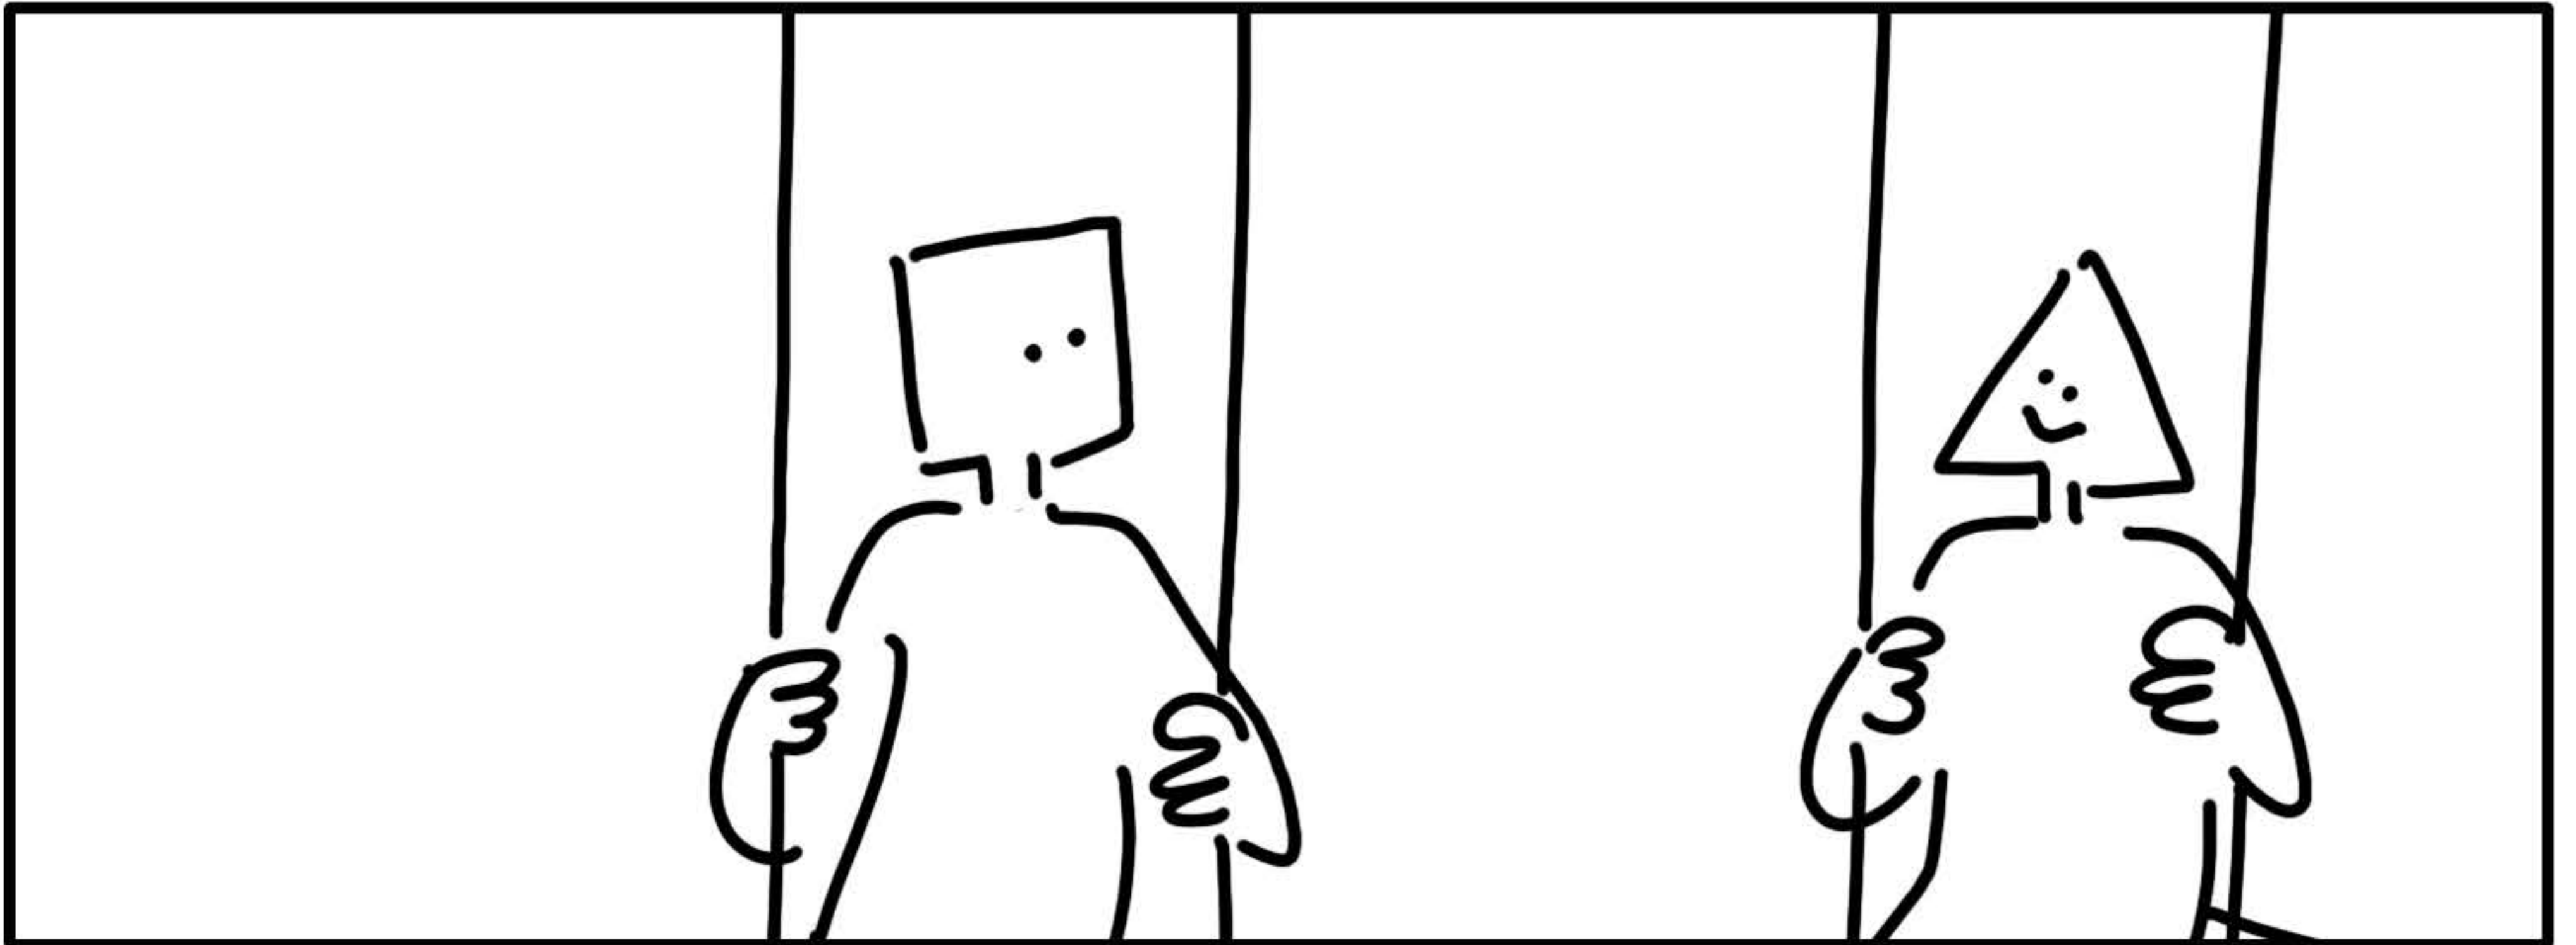

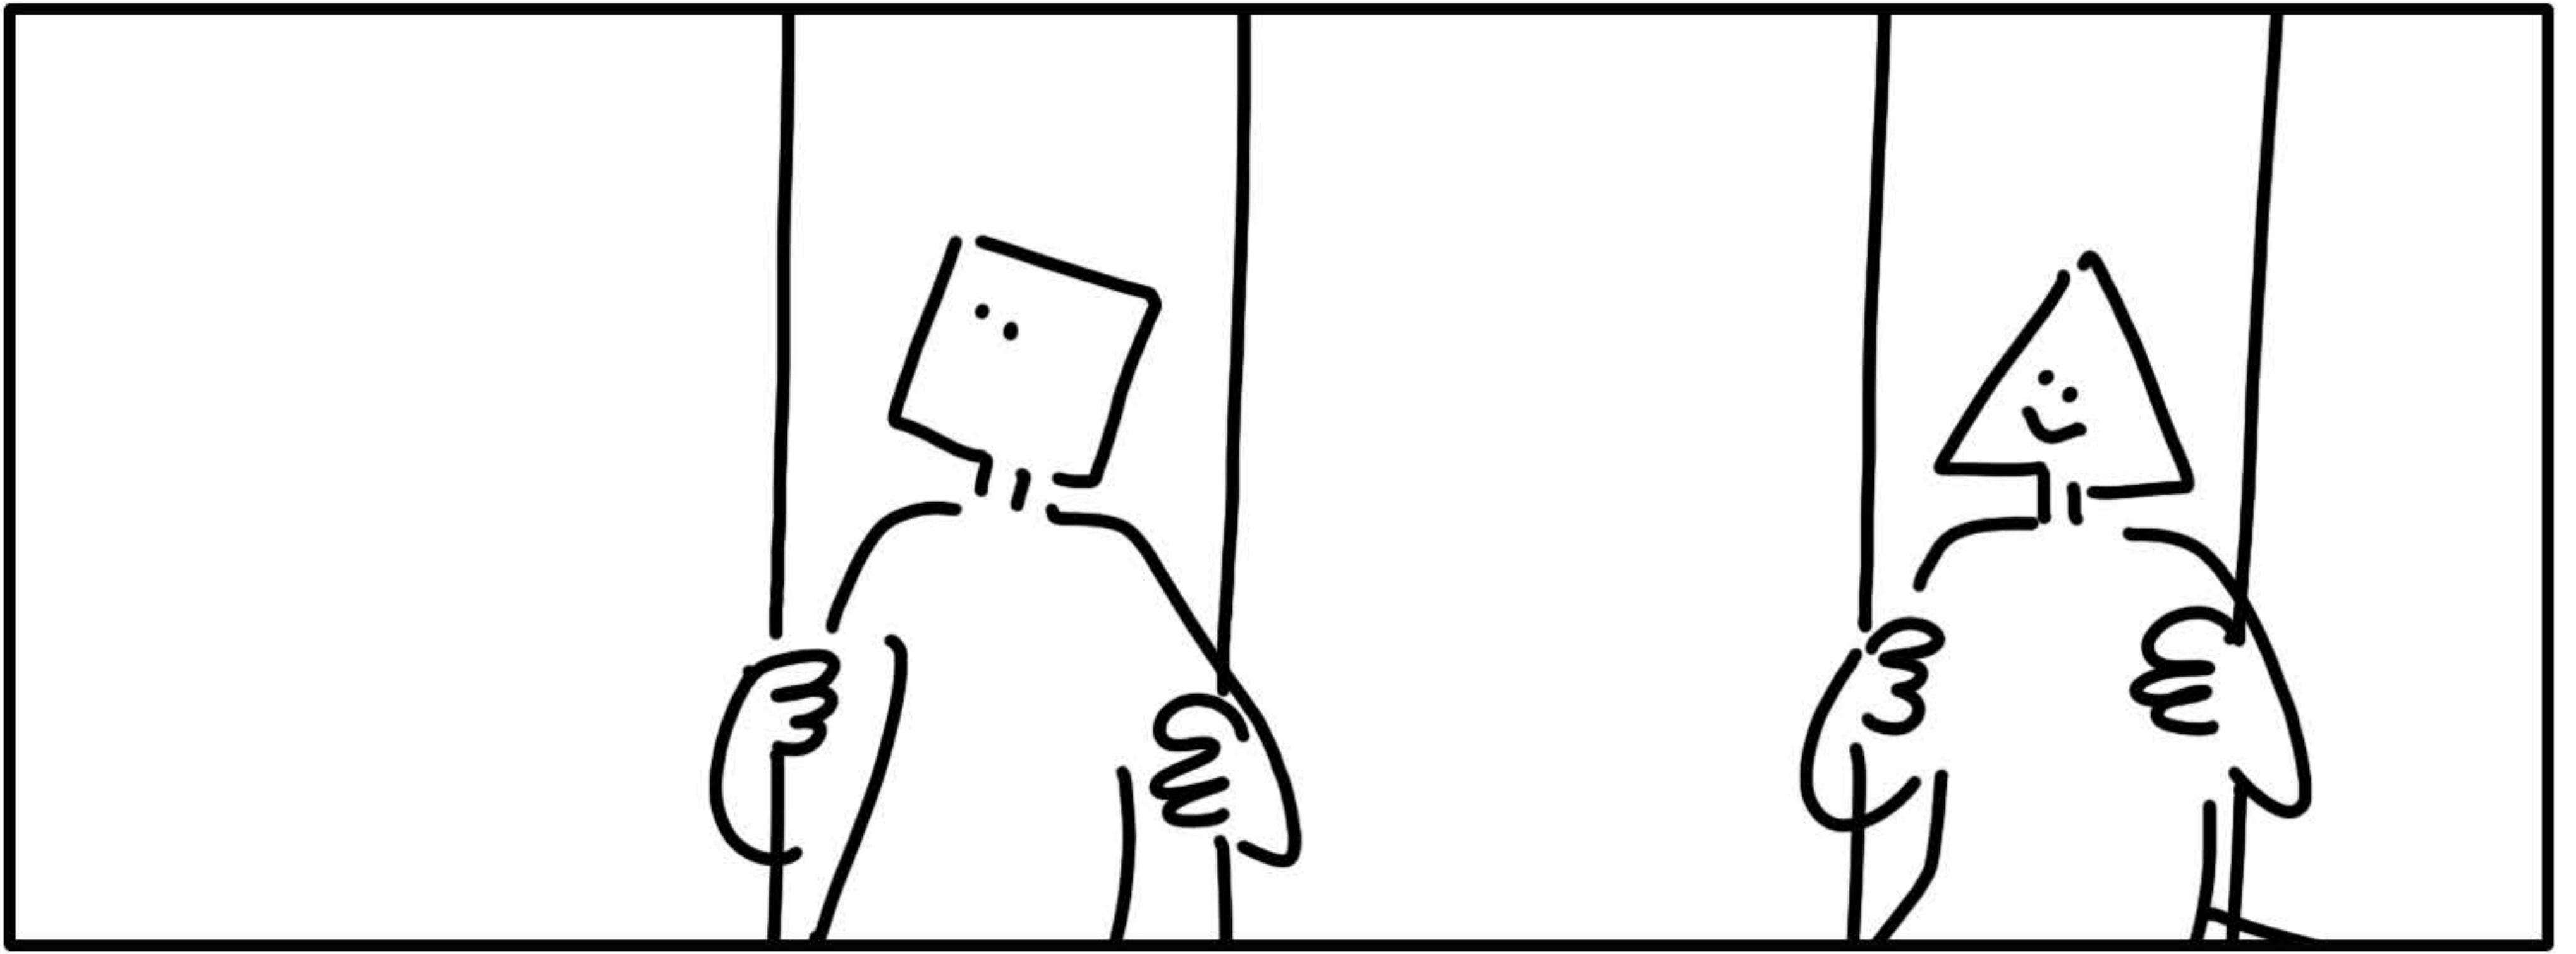

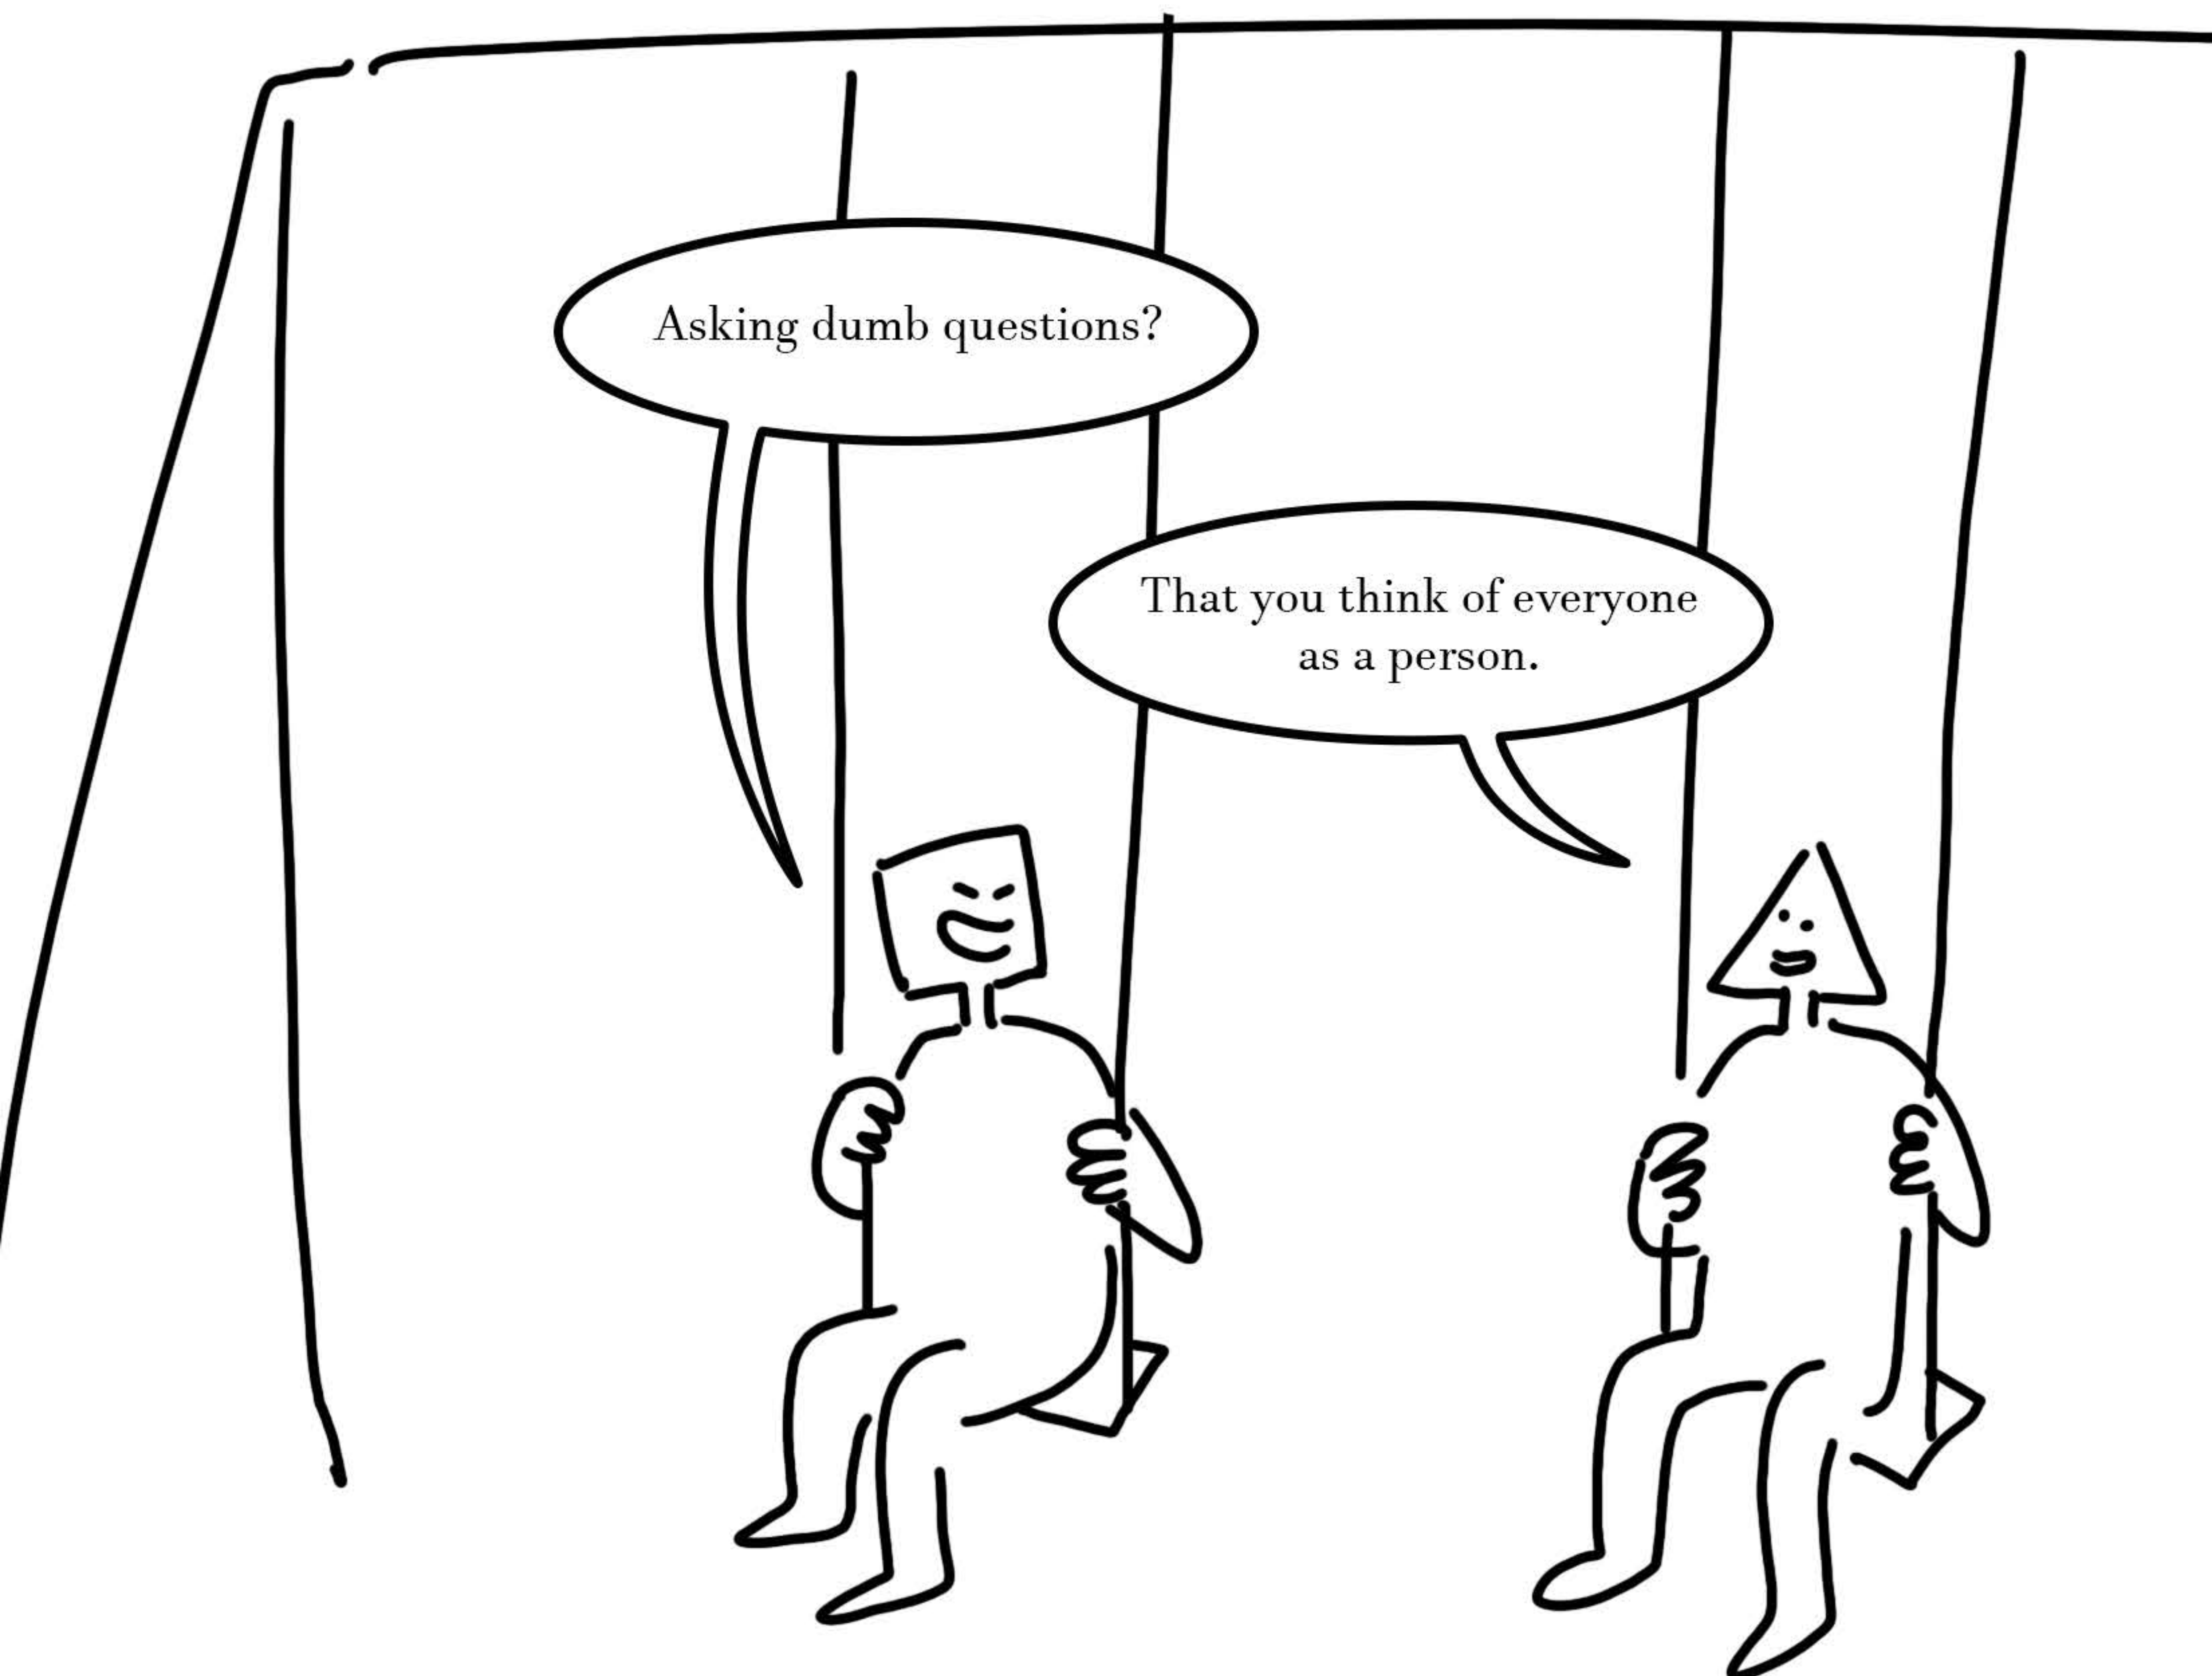

Is it lonely to have everyone
relying on you?

Can you still be angry,
when you have so much understanding
all the hurts make sense?

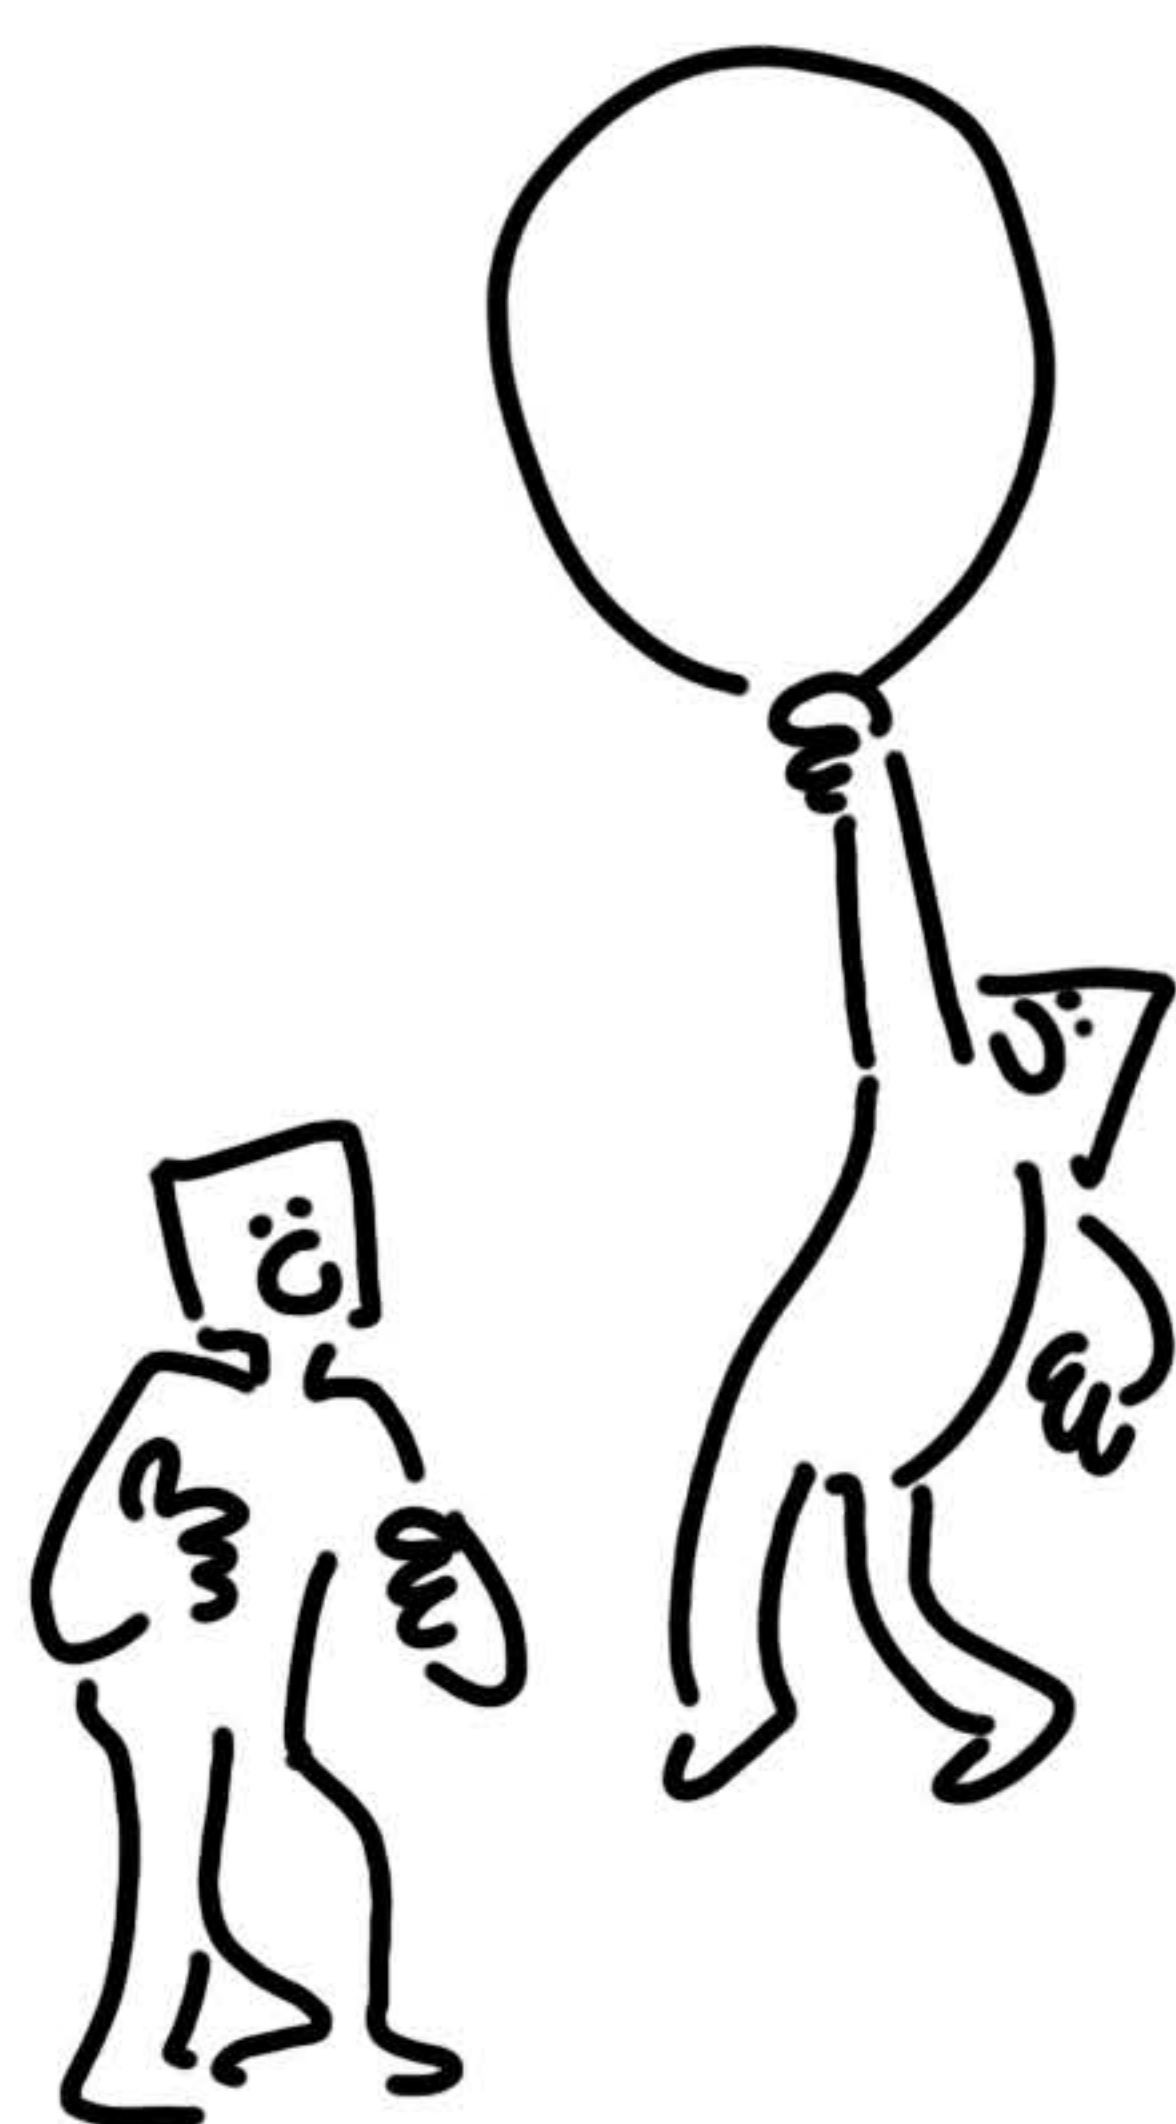

Is it hard to make friends
when you won't be angry on anyone's behalf?

@yeehawpin

Does it hurt?

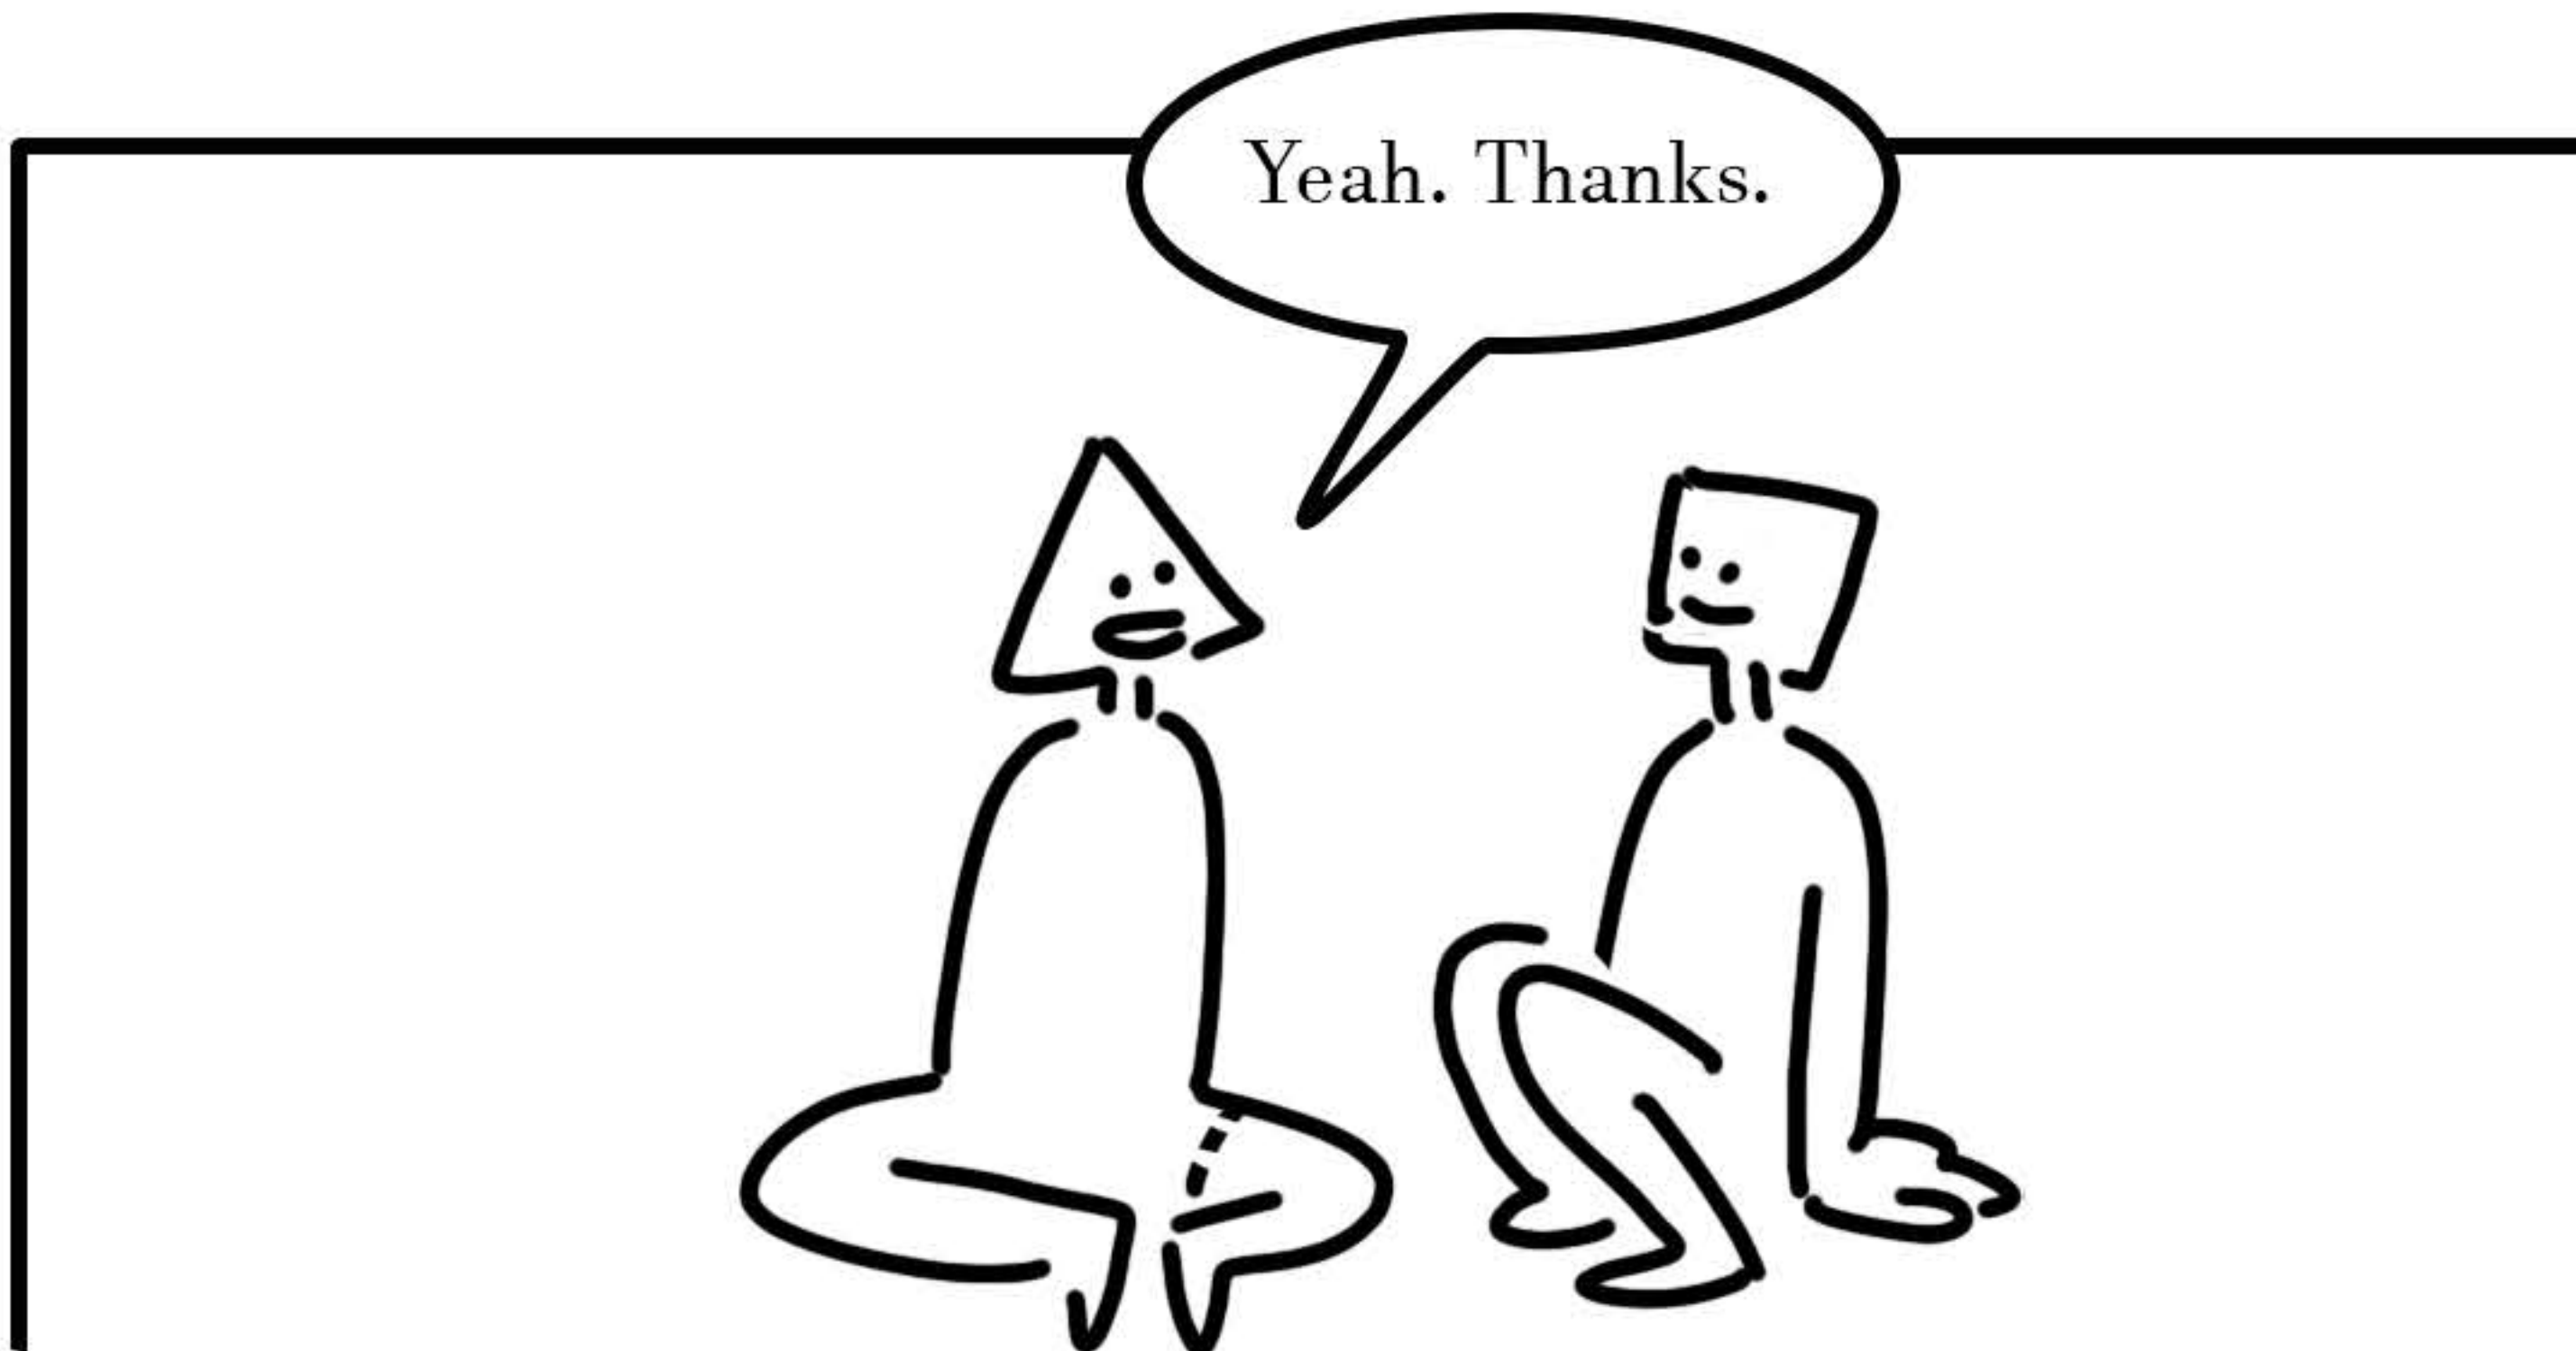

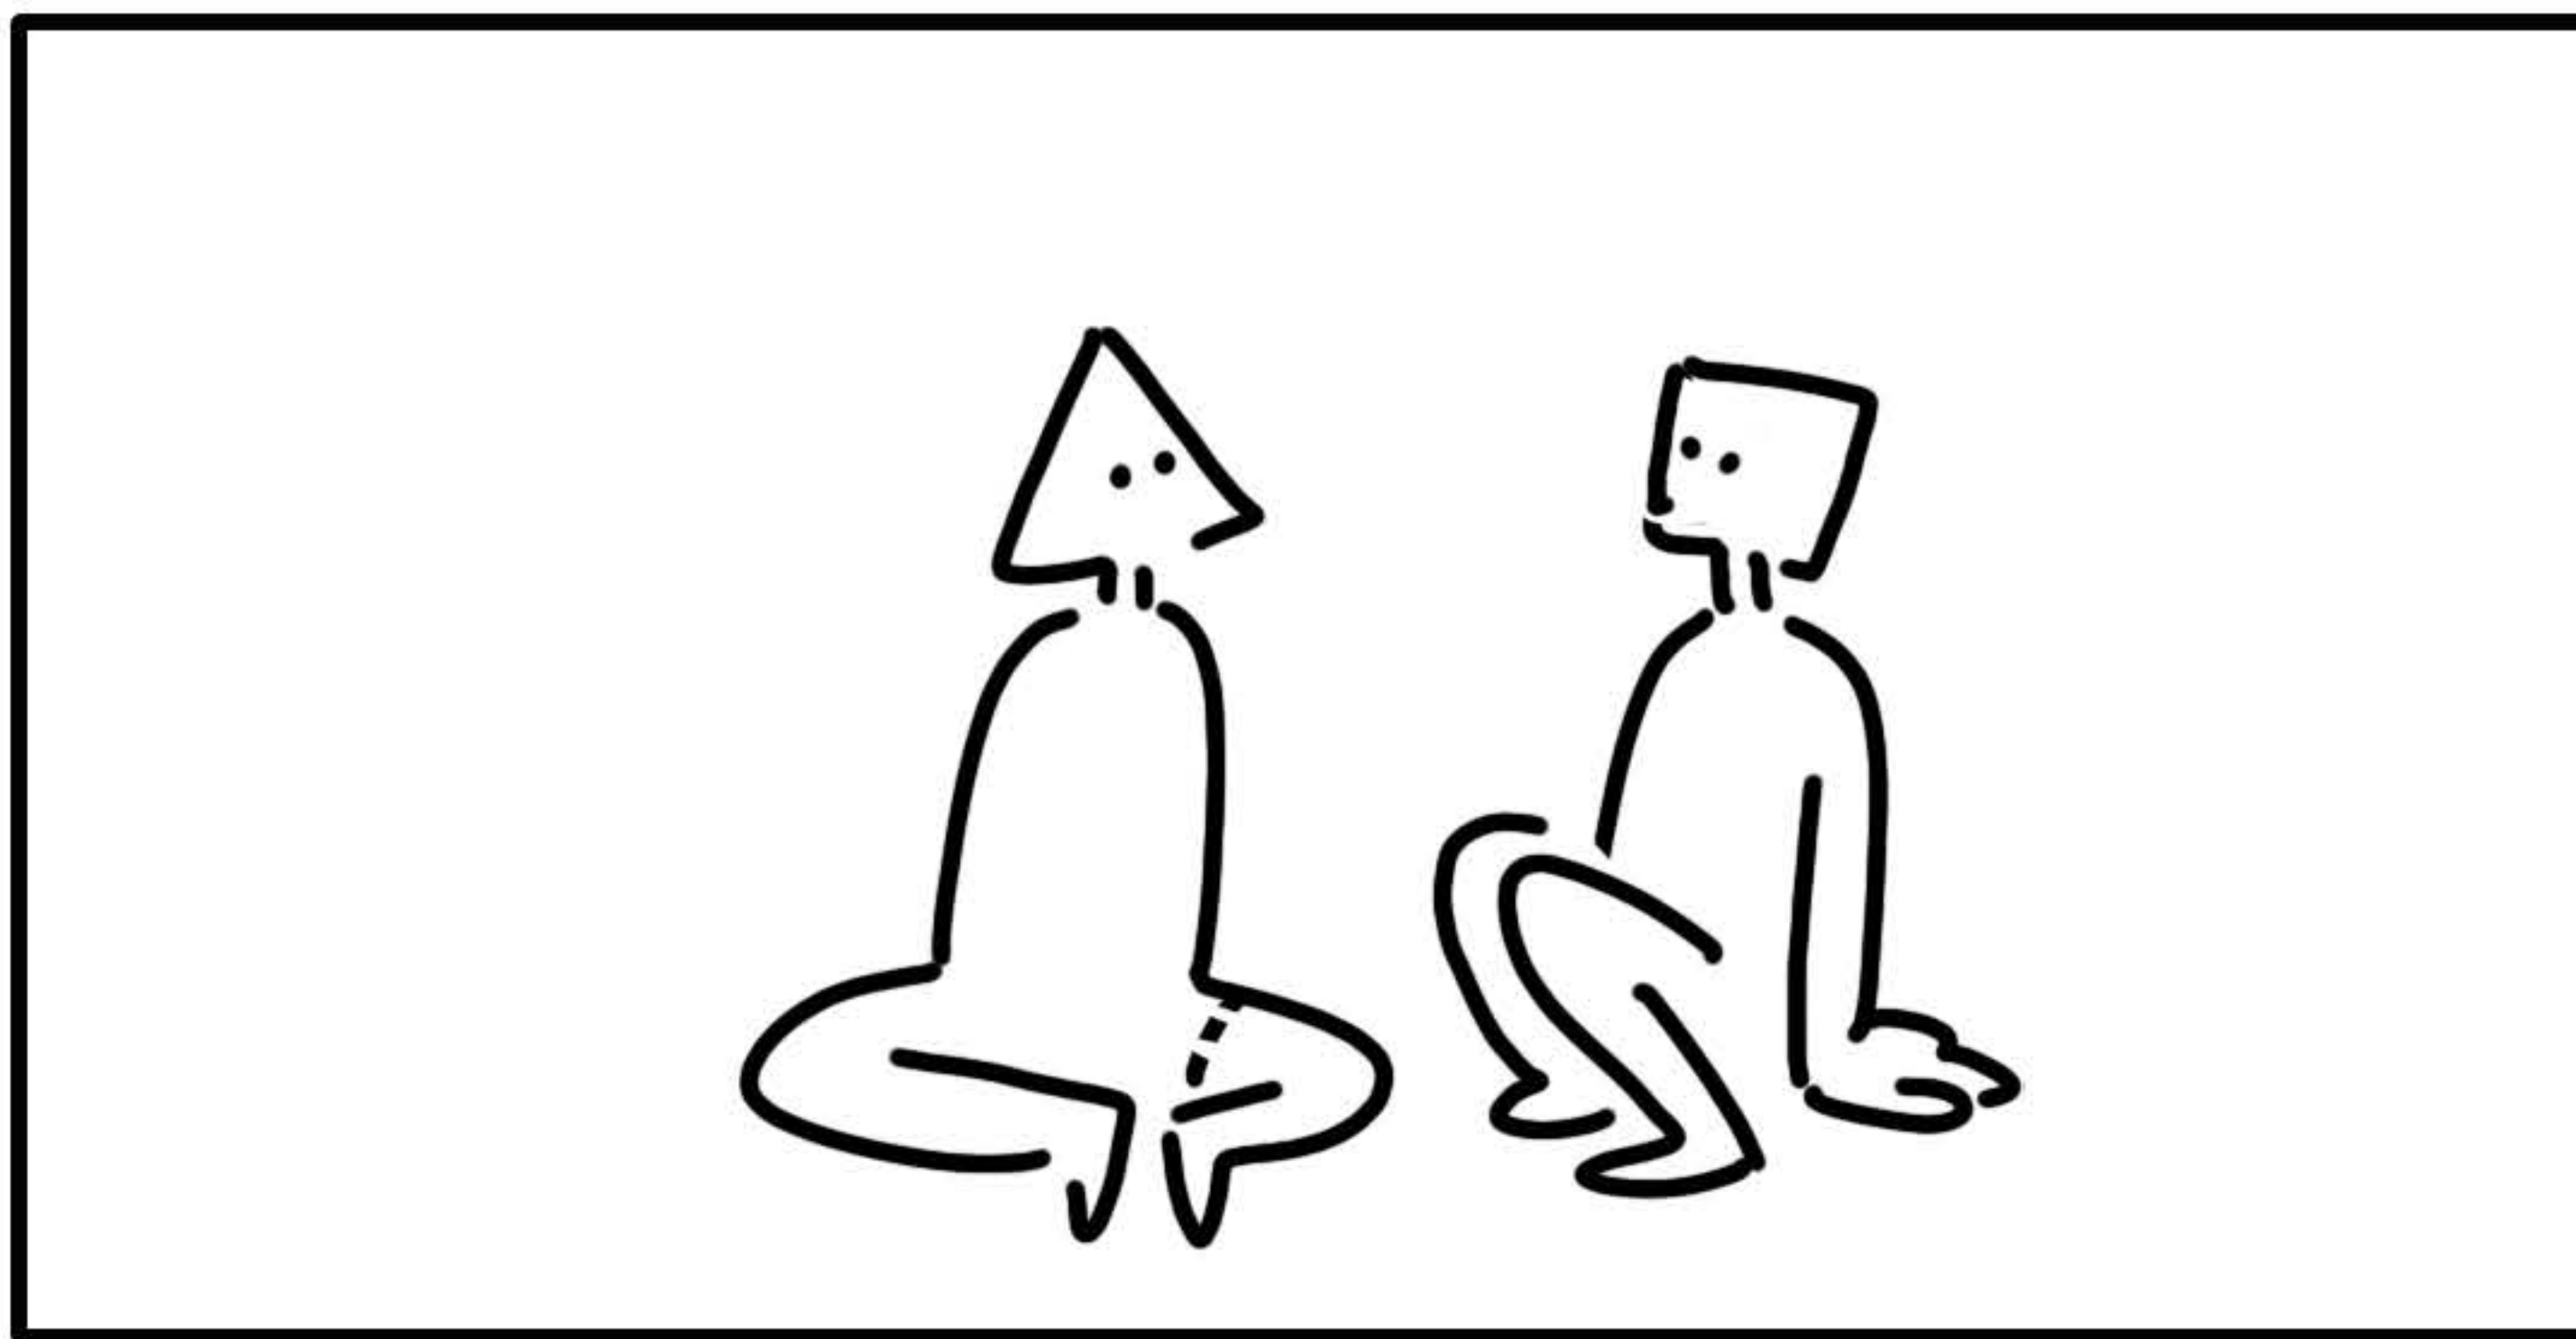

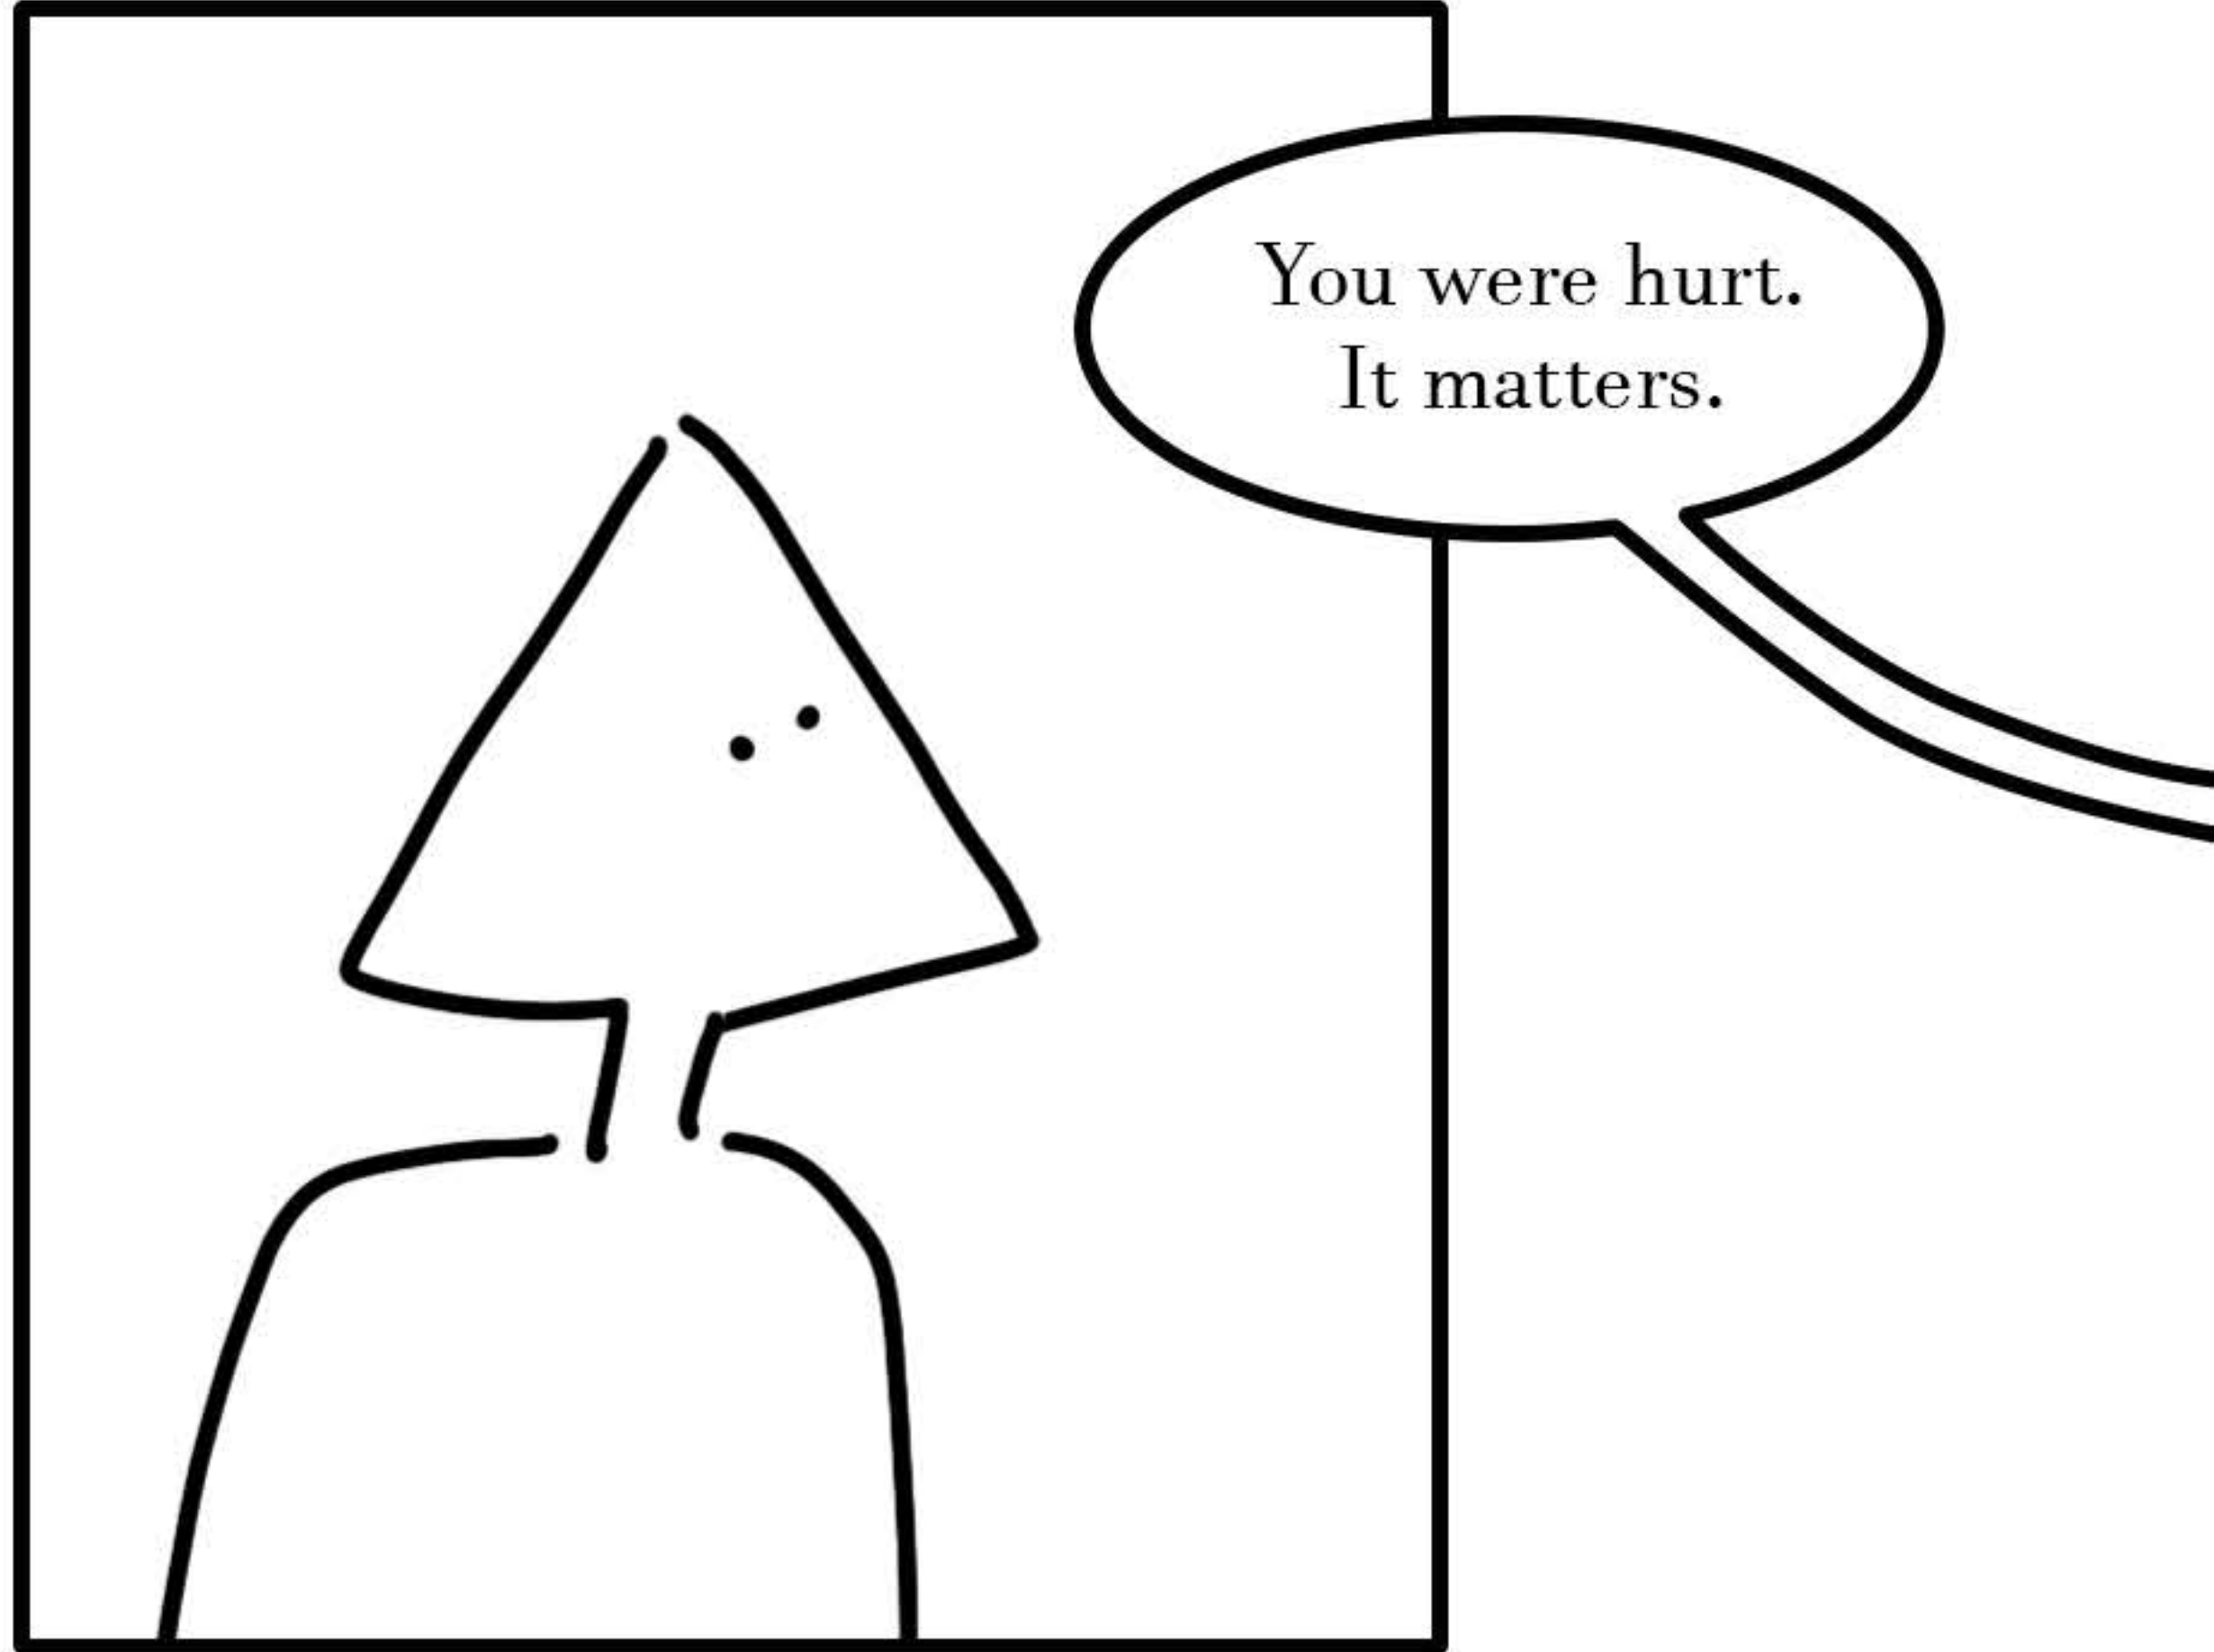

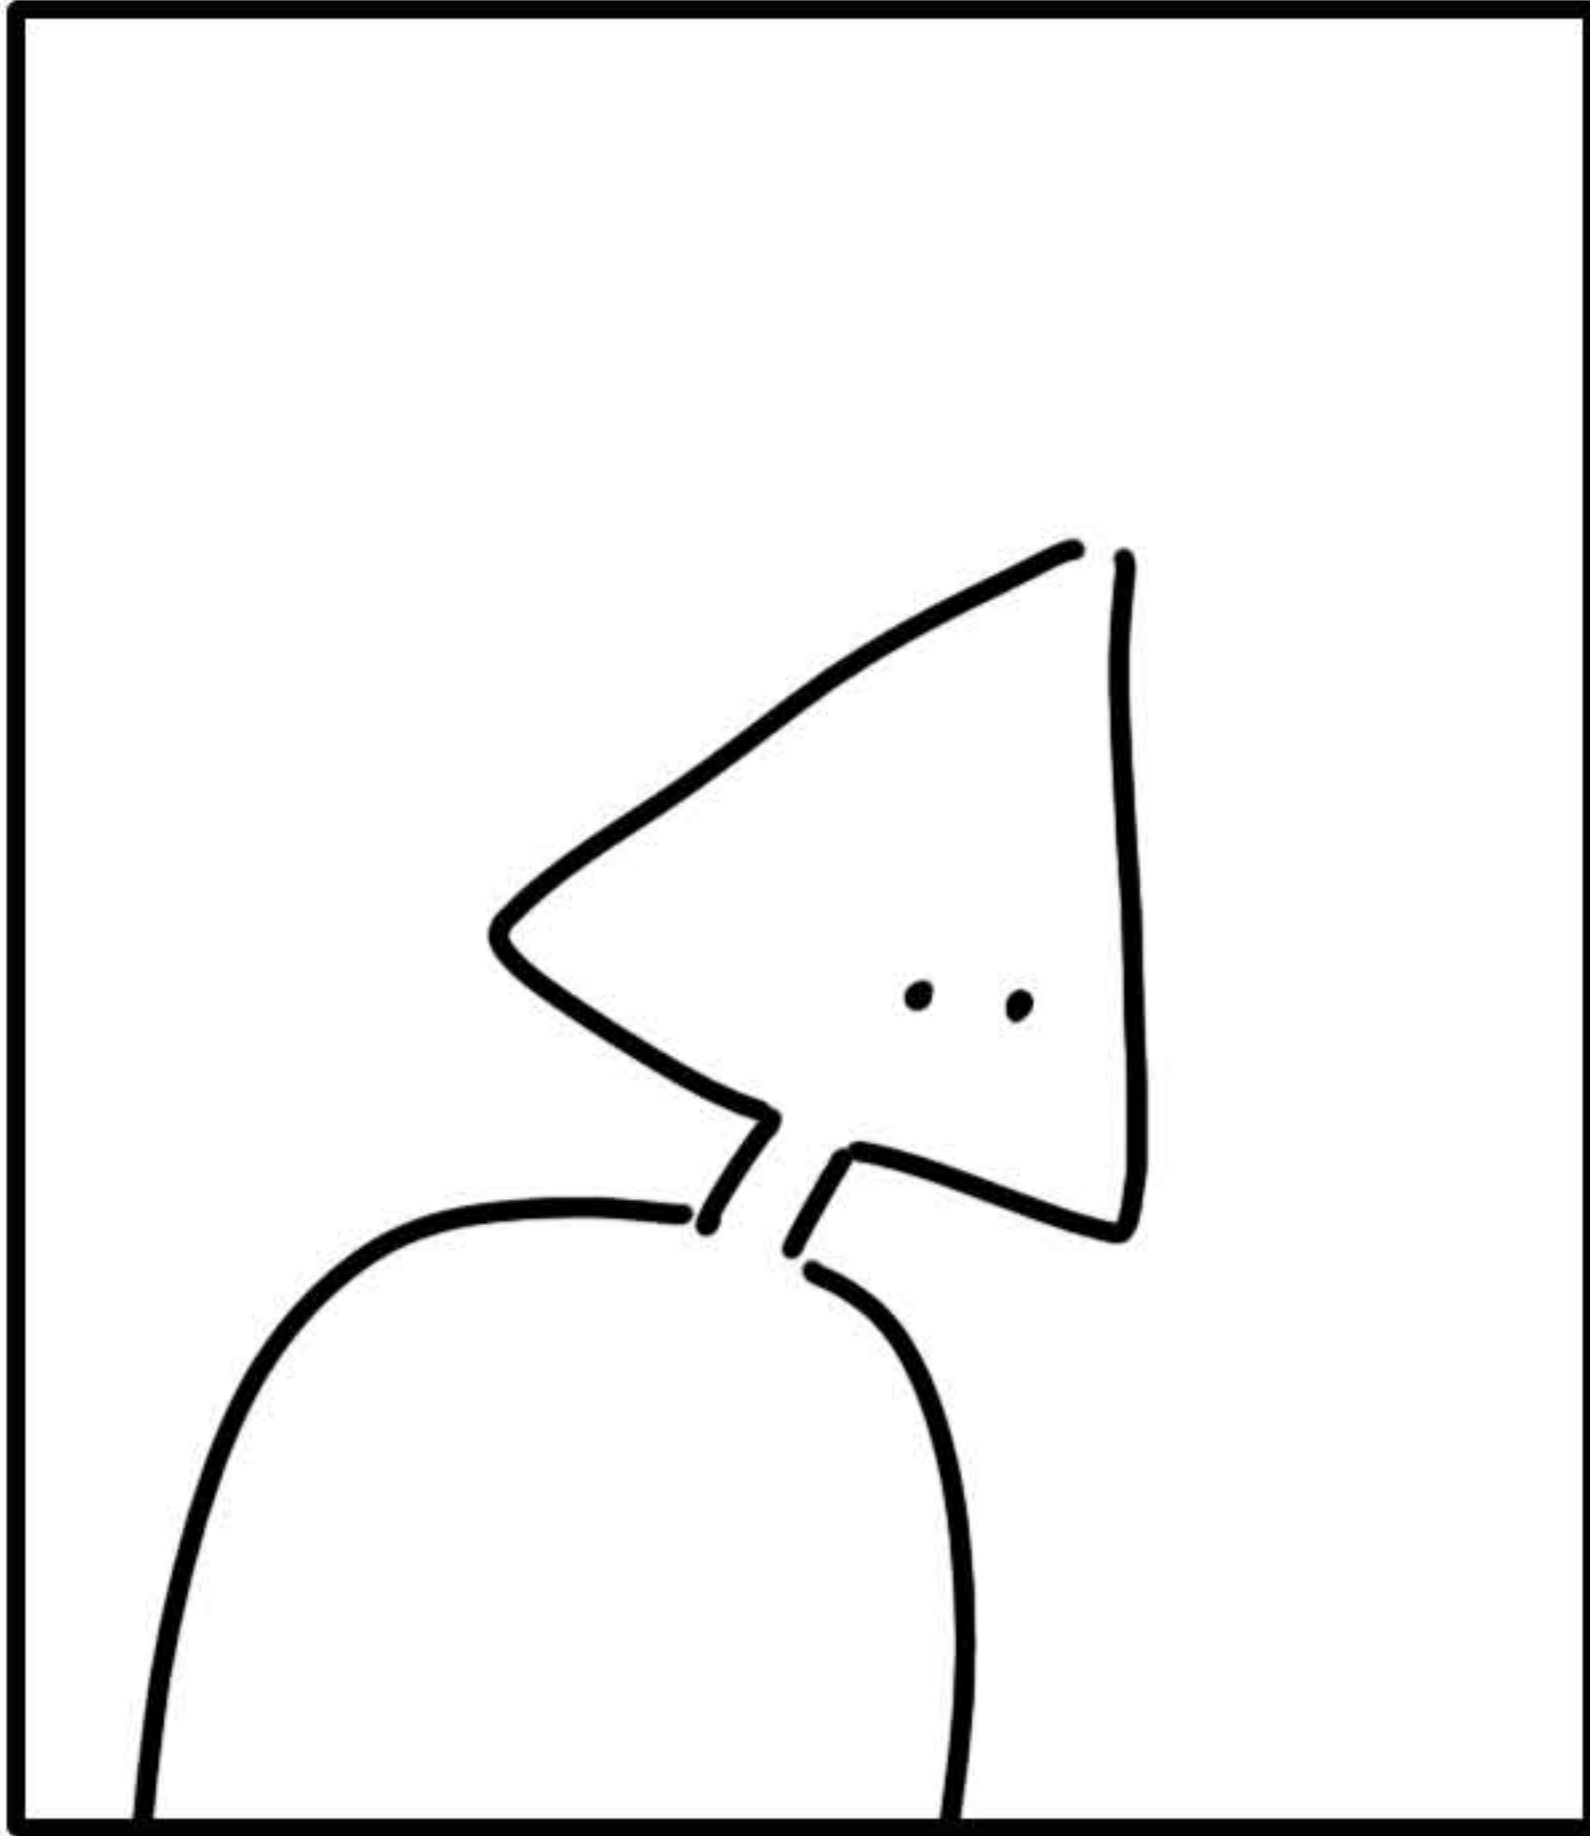

Is it scary to think people
will see you got hurt?

Not really, I can say
I fought a dragon.

I think what's scarier is thinking it'll disappear one day.

Like nothing happened
and it didn't matter.

wow you really love wizard ptolemy huh?

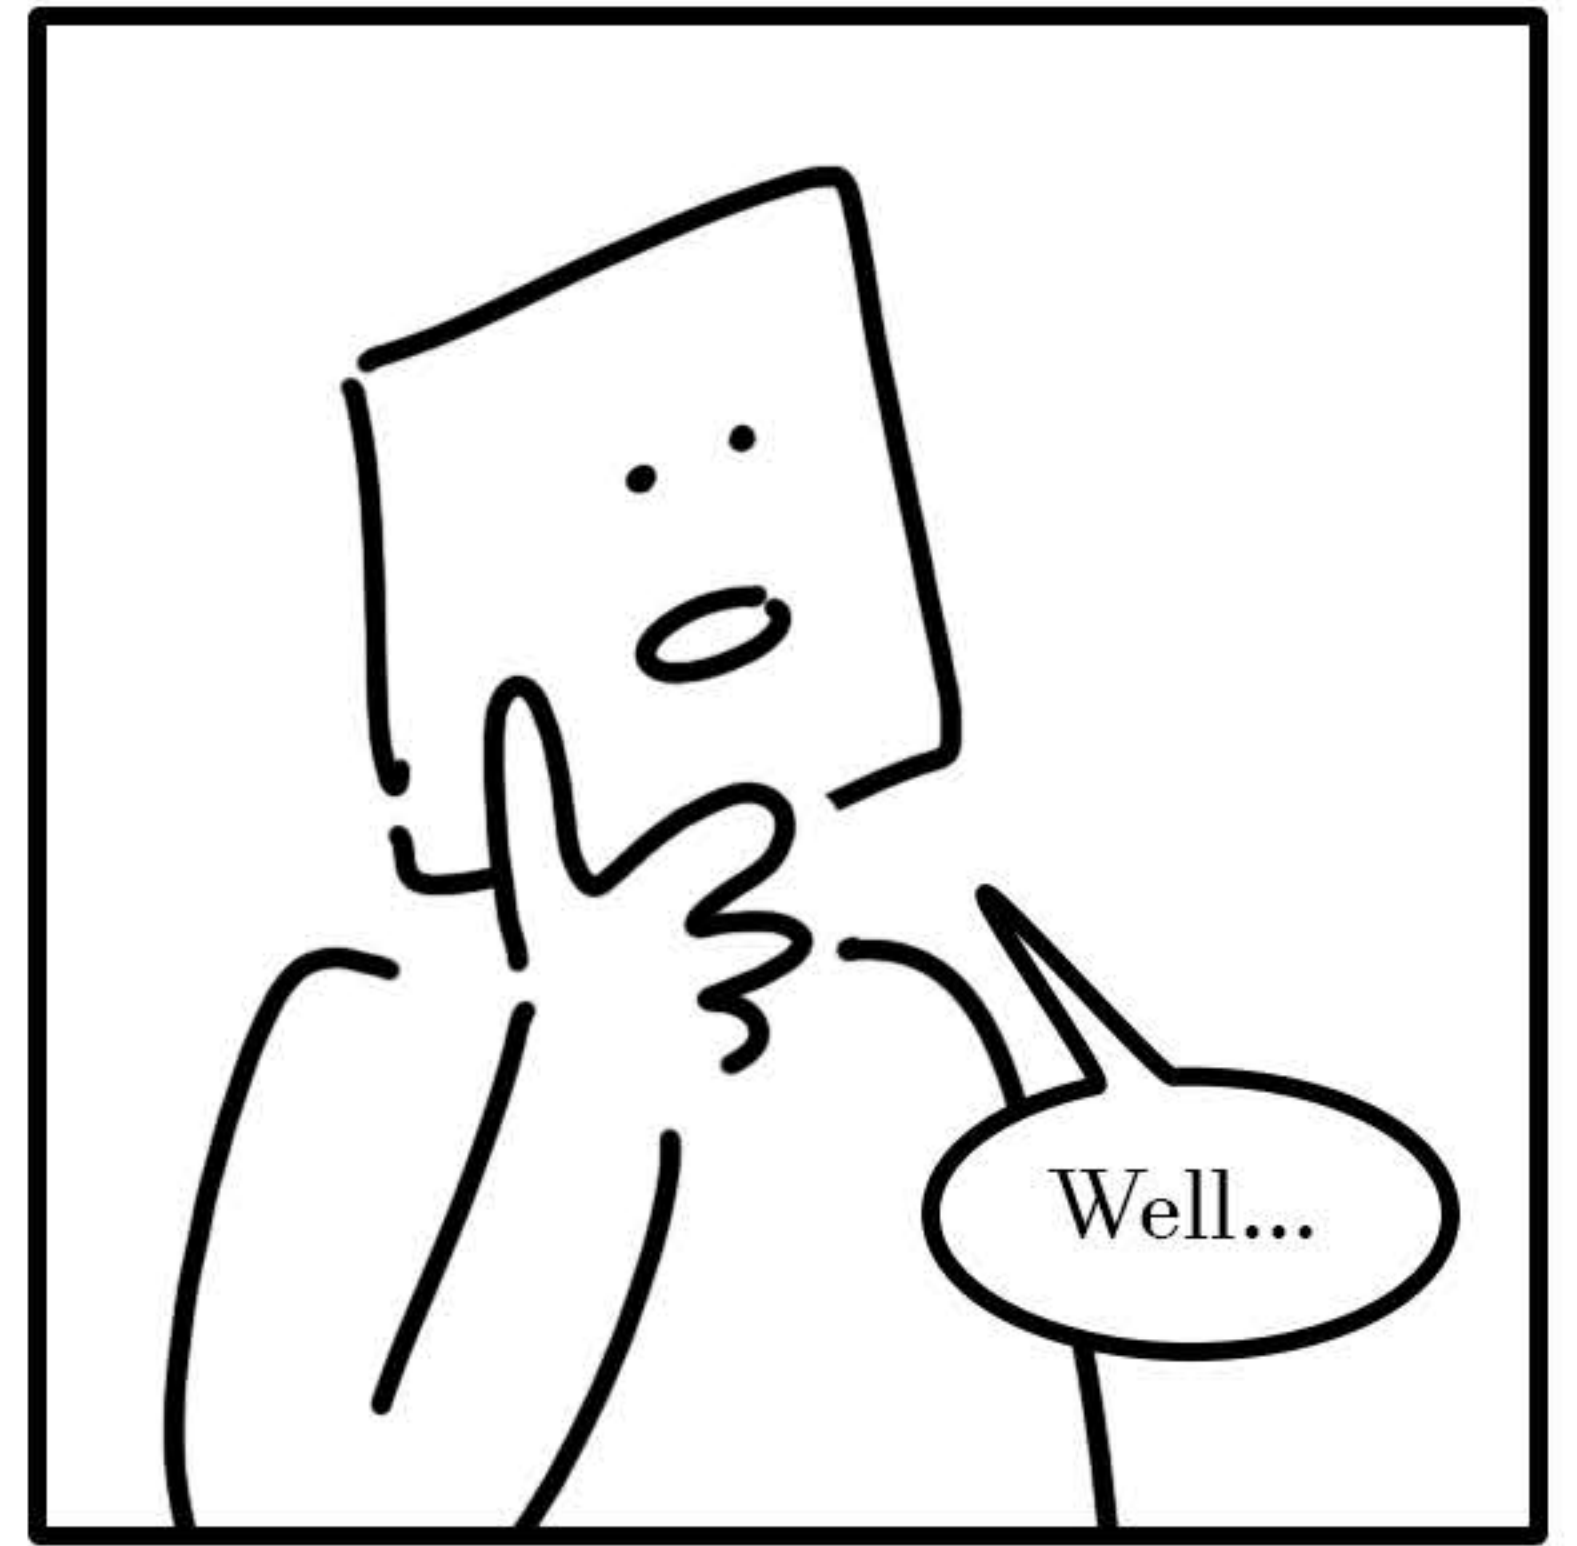

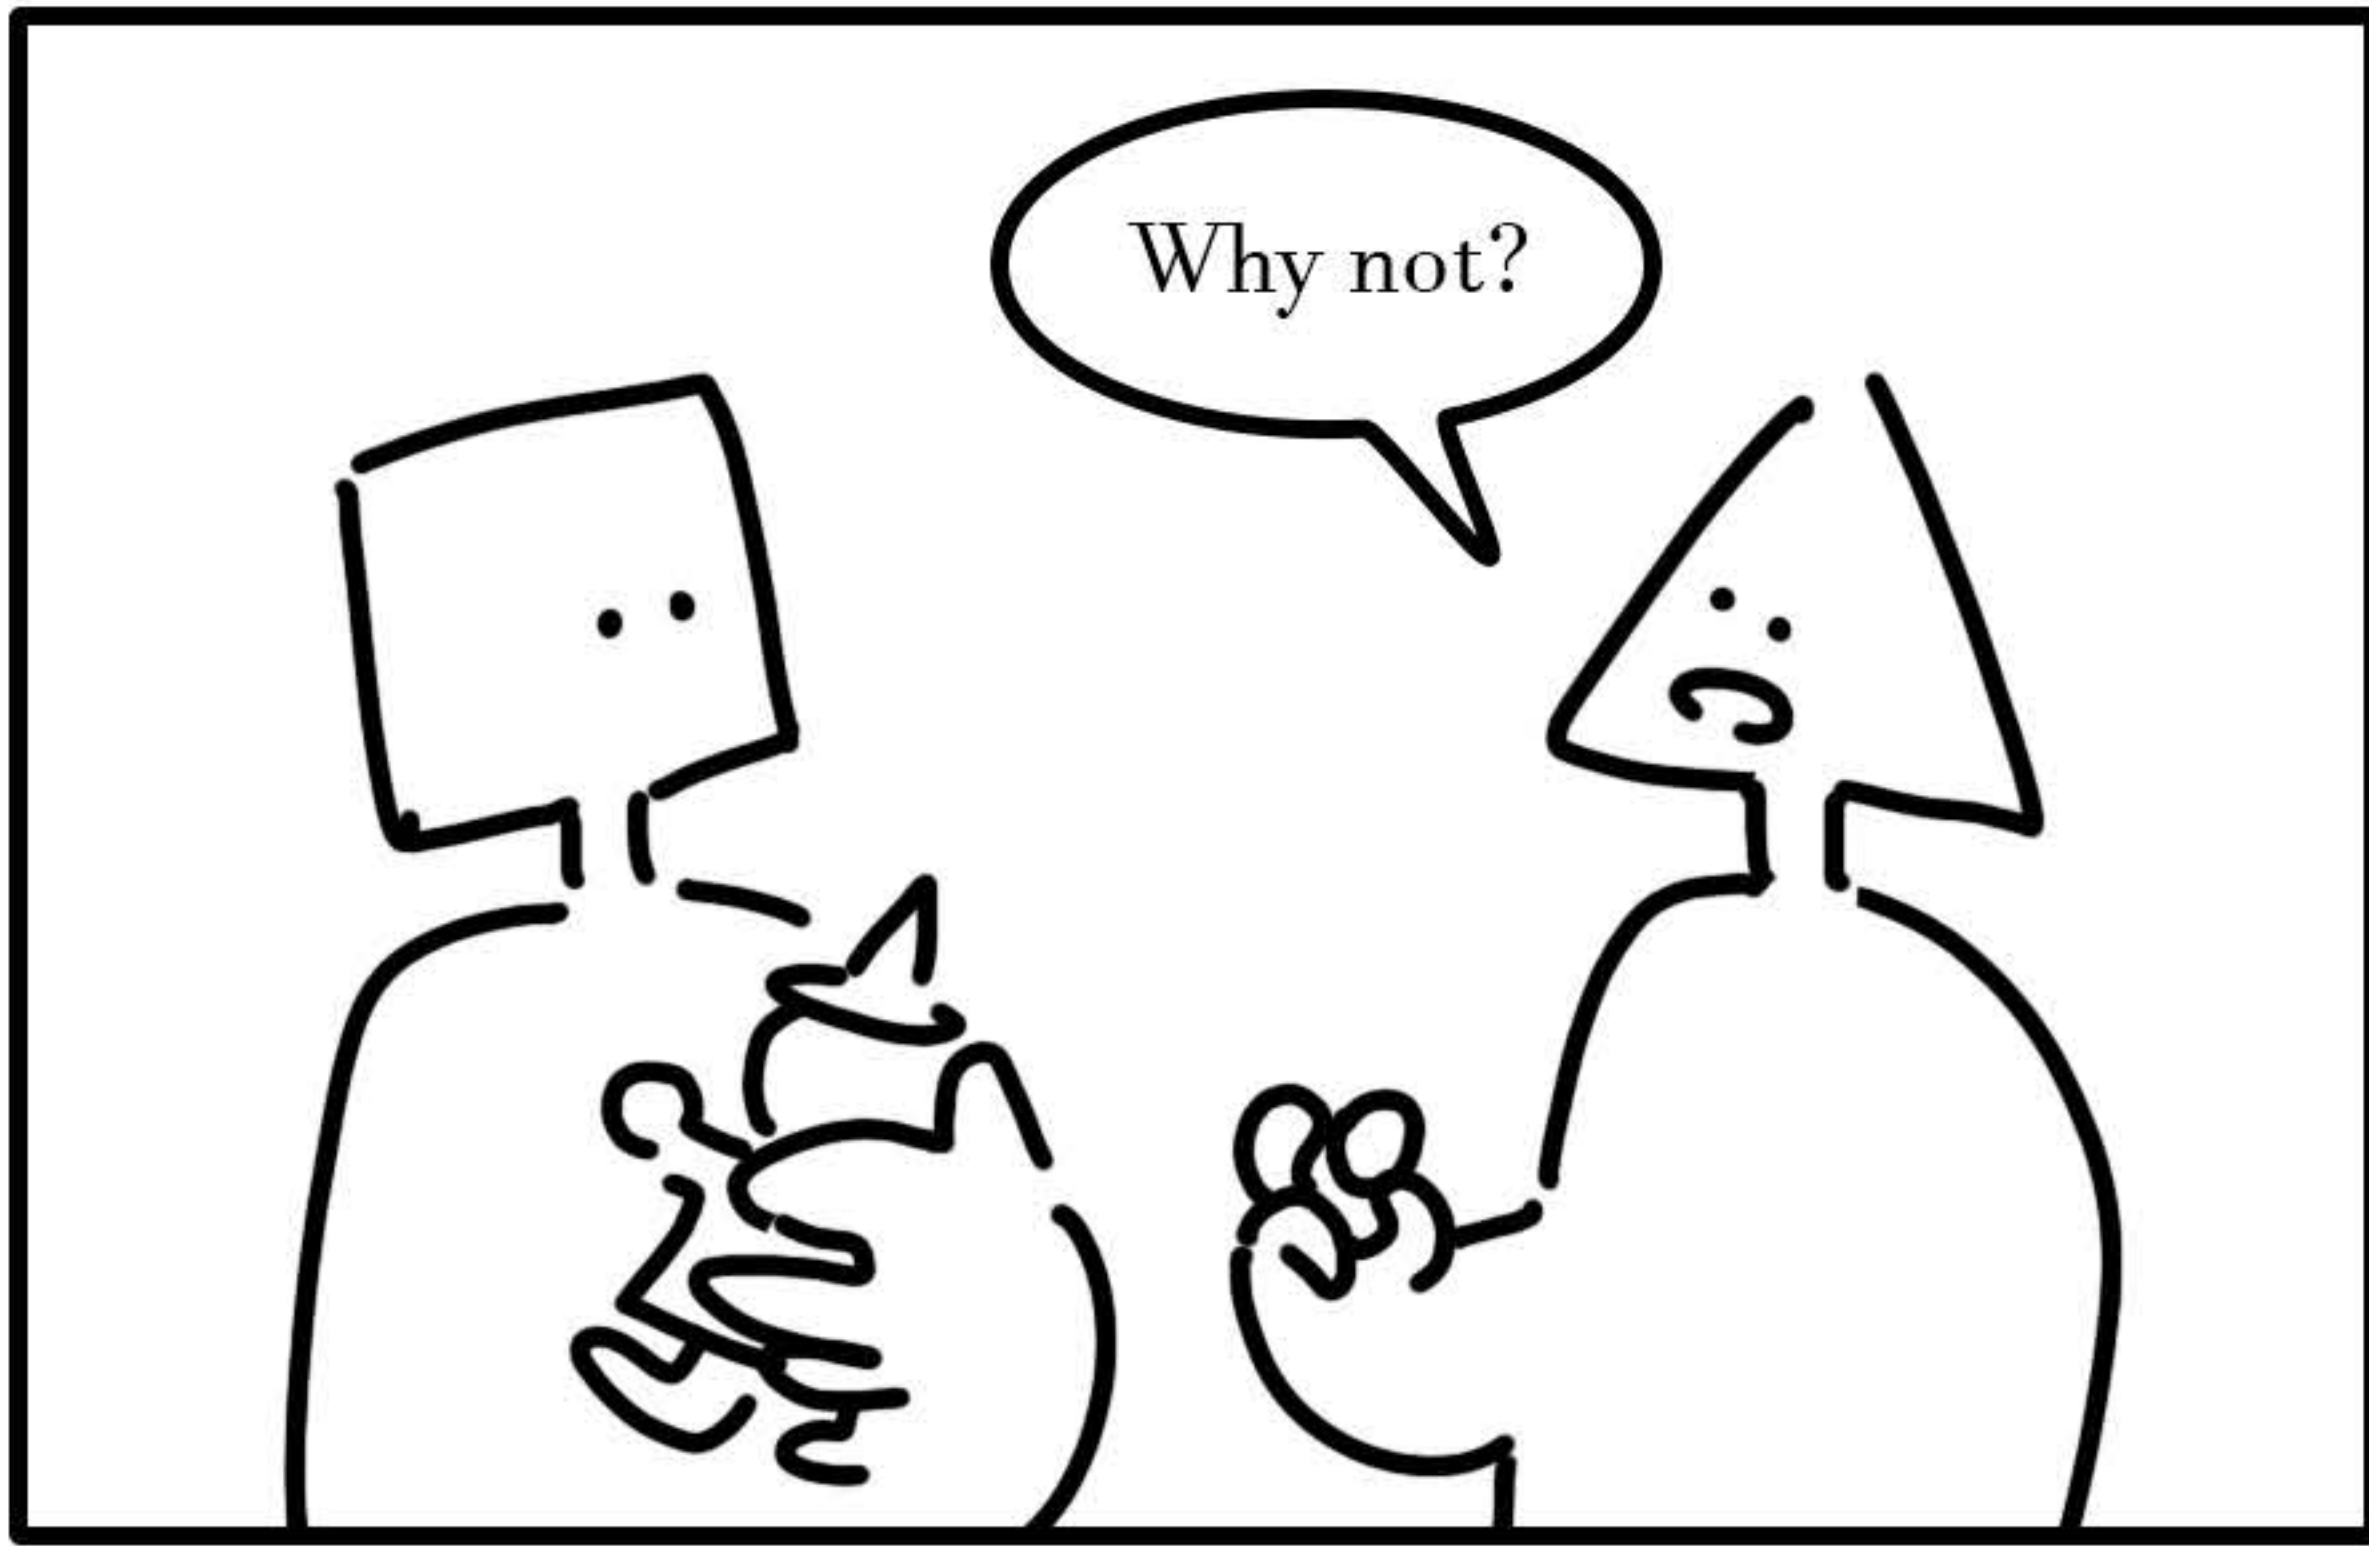

yeah! when I was little I used to daydream about the world ending

and how we'd be friends and go on adventures together

I don't do that as much anymore.

@yeehawpim

...but I still really want to go on an adventure with wizard ptolemy
